Brooks Agrees To Interstate Hearing

. . . OMAHA PRIORITY DISCUSSION FEB. 2

By Betty Person

Gov. Ralph Brooks announced Wednesday that he will meet Feb. 2 with a group of Nebraskans protesting downtown Omaha's high priority on Interstate Highway construction, but declined for now to make any change in present plans.

Brooks

The governor said he would announce his "conclusions on the subject" within two weeks of the hearing scheduled at 2 p.m. Feb. 2 in the State Capitol.

The announcement came when Brooks' administrative assistant, Robert Conrad, released copies of a letter addressed to Alliance publisher Gene Kemper, temporary chairman of the executive committee of Greater Nebraska Interstate, Inc.

The group, which includes representatives of communities stretching from Lincoln westward across the state, was formed in protest to downtown Omaha's high priority, and favors earlier construction of outstate segments of the superhighway.

Asked Hearing

Incorporators of the group Monday sent Brooks a telegram asking for a hearing and requesting that land purchase, engineering and construction on the Omaha route be halted until such a hearing was held.

Rep. Don McGinley, Fourth District congressman, had first asked that the group be given a hearing, suggesting that it should be held with the Nebraska Highway Advisory Commission and attended by representatives of the U. S. Bureau of Public roads and the Iowa Highway Department.

Brooks wrote Kemper that he intends to ask the "Highway Advisory Commission and the Acting State Engineer (John Hossack) to sit with me in a conultative capacity during your presentation."

In reply to questions Wednesday, Conrad said that a representative of the Bureau of Roads "undoubtedly will be present" at the meeting, and that an invitation to Iowa representatives was "under consideration."

McGinley's suggestion for an Iowa representative stems from a reported agreement approved by the Bureau in 1957 establishing the top priority for this route's connecting the two states.

Brooks' letter to Kemper said:

"For several reasons, including those expressed by Congressman McGinley and a similar line of thought advanced by Sen. Norman Otto of Kearney, I welcome the opportunity to receive the benefit of your thinking on the

Castro Boots Spain Envoy

. . . INTERRUPTED TELECAST

Havana (AP) — Fidel Castro early Thursday ordered Spanish Ambassador Juan Pablo de Lojendio out of Cuba after the ambassador interrupted a Castro telecast and charged the prime minister had slandered him.

Castro in his speech had charged the Spanish embassy was linked to counterrevolutionary plots against his regime. As the prime minister continued to talk, the ambassador charged into the studio and demanded a hearing before the television audience.

Castro refused, shouting: "You are not in Spain now. You are in Cuba."

De Lojendio, obviously angry, approached Castro but a crowd of police and army officers welled up from the audience, came between them and forced the ambassador out of the studio.

Resuming his speech, Castro shouted:

"I will give the Spanish ambassador 24 hours to get out of Cuba."

Official Backing

There was loud applause from the studio audience and President Osvaldo Dorticos left his seat, took the microphone and said:

"There is no other course. This is an official decision of our government."

Castro condemned the studio appearance of the ambassador as "insolent."

"I want to ask if they (the Spaniards) would allow anyone to present himself before Generalissimo Francisco Franco and conduct himself in such an insolent manner."

$240,000 TIMOTHY HALL

Concordia College's new $240,000 men's dormitory—Timothy Hall—will be open to some 115 students at Seward Sunday. (Star Staff Photo)

Concordia Dorm Readied

By Gene Budig

Seward — The first link in a $1,250,000 chain of new Concordia College buildings will be completed here this weekend.

On Sunday the doors to Timothy Hall, the college's new $240,000 men's dormitory, will open with some 115 upperclassmen moving in.

Started last April, the 40 by 140-foot brick residence hall includes a reception lounge, TV room, snack bar, recreation room, laundry and a chapel.

College officials reported Wednesday that Timothy Hall is the first of a planned section of 5 dormitories.

Ruth Hall — the second link in the expansion chain —is scheduled for occupancy in February. This, to, is a $240,000 brick structure.

Completion of a $450,000 physical education building and a $320,000 library will come early in the spring with an over-all dedication in May.

The other planned dorms should be started within the next two years, officials said.

The schoolmen also revealed plans to erect buildings for music and science departments in the near future. Discussions on these additions are underway.

"The college has been in dire need of housing additions for many years. Right now, 280 of our students live off campus," a spokesman said. The college has more than 600 students.

Nature Doctor Seized By FBI

Questioned In Airliner Crash; He Reportedly Knew Lawyer Frank

Phoenix, Ariz. (AP) — A heavily-insured ex-convict presumed to have died in one of two suspicious Airliner crashes was found alive and seized by the FBI in Phoenix Wednesday.

Dr. Spears
Nabbed In Phoenix

Dr. Robert Vernon Spears of Dallas was held on a charge of transporting a stolen car interstate. But he also was questioned about the crash of a National Airlines plane, on which he was listed as a passenger, into the Gulf of Mexico Nov. 16.

Spears, 65, was located, living under an assumed name, at a resort motel, as federal authorities in Washington were investigating the possibility that both the Gulf crash and one in North Carolina were caused by bombs.

Spears drove to Phoenix in a car belonging to William Allen Taylor of Tampa, Fla., a former prison acquaintance suspected of substituting for Spears on the Gulf flight.

Frank An Acquaintance

Spears also is reported to have known Julian Andrew Frank, New York lawyer insured for $900,000 and named as a possible suicide bomber on the plane which fell in North Carolina.

However, the Civil Aeronautics Board and the Senate Aviation sub-committee, both of which are investigating, have not established that a bomb was responsible for either crash.

As Spears was led to jail in Phoenix, a reporter asked him: "Did you bomb the plane?"

He laughed and replied: "No. I may make a statement tomorrow."

Newsmen were not permitted to talk with him further, and the FBI refused to say whether he had shed any light on the Gulf crash.

Heavily Insured

Mrs. Spears said her husband carried a $100,000 "floater" policy covering travels which was taken out in September. She said he also had two life insurance policies, one for $20,000 and another for $1,000.

The stocky, white-haired Spears waived preliminary hearing on a charge that, while he had permission to drive Taylor's car from Tampa to Dallas, he brought it to Phoenix illegally.

Spears was held under $35,000 bond, unusually high for a stolen auto case, at the request of the FBI.

Agents did not say how they learned Spears was in Phoenix.

Leaving Motel

Spears had just checked out of the Bali Hi motel and was climbing into a cab when two agents grabbed him.

The manager of the motel, James D. Pentkowski, said Spears obviously was in a hurry when he checked out. A clerk at the motel said another man had registered Spears under the name of George Rhodes Tuesday.

Spears' name was on the list of 36 passengers on National Airlines Flight 967, which plunged into the Gulf while en route from Miami to New Orleans. Six crew members also died in the crash. Only fragments of the plane and 9 bodies were recovered.

Since 1927 Spears has been convicted of mail fraud, forgery, larceny, false pretenses, violation of immigration laws, false personation and robbery. He served prison terms in Leavenworth, Kan., Missouri, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Florida, Oklahoma and Maryland.

Testimony at a CAB hearing showed Taylor, 60, a Tampa tire salesman, served time with Spears in 1936. The board also was told Spears talked with Taylor in Tampa before the Gulf of Mexico crash.

Russ Fire Pacific Missile

. . . 'SHOT MISSED TARGET BY SEVERAL HUNDRED MILES'

Washington (AP) — High U. S. military authorities said Wednesday night a Soviet missile had been fired into the central Pacific but it apparently missed its target by several hundred miles.

The base for the launching of the missile was believed to be in the vicinity of the Caspian Sea, near the southernmost boundary of the Soviet Union with Iran.

There was no further word on details of the firing. U. S. authorities, however, appeared satisfied the shot had been made and had deviated from its target by at least several hundred miles.

U. S. Naval craft in the central Pacific have been keeping a close watch on the target area announced some time ago by the U. S. S. R.

An official release from the Pentagon late Wednesday afternoon said only that Russia may have fired a huge test rocket across Eurasia and into the central Pacific—a distance of perhaps 8,000 miles.

The Great Circle course for such a track would take a missile diagonally up across Siberia and out to sea over Russia's Kamchatka Peninsula, then down over the curve of the earth to the impact zone.

The distance would be substantially longer than the 6,300-mile range for Atlas intercontinental missiles tested by the United States in the Atlantic.

Accuracy Important

It would take a little more than half an hour for a rocket to travel from western Eurasia to the Pacific impact area.

U.S. missilemen are as interested in observing an actual demonstration of the accuracy of Russian rockets as they are in checking range.

Soviet rockets have been seen by U.S. observers on more than one occasion coming into an impact zone in the north Pacific. Navy ships and planes reported such sightings last fall.

Russian observation ships began moving toward the central Pacific impact area several weeks ago.

BEVAN HAS A RELAPSE

London (UPI) — Deputy Labor Party leader Aneurin Bevan Wednesday suffered a relapse from an operation and hospital officials said his condition "causes great anxiety."

Bevan, 62, underwent major abdominal surgery Dec. 29 but had been reported in good contion in the 3 weeks of his convalescence.

A hospital spokesman said the relapse came just after midday, when Bevan turned pale. He was conscious in the evening, but not talking. 'He appears exhausted," the spokesman said.

No Offer Yet, Say Railmen

Chicago (AP) — Union and management spokesmen said Wednesday there has been no official offer by the railroads for settlement of a contract dispute with the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

A published report that the railroads has made an offer during negotiations in Chicago Monday was termed erroneous by top negotiators for the union and the railroads.

"Neither the union nor the railroad committees have as yet made an offer on wages," Theodore Short, chairman of a committee representing the carriers, said.

Perry Heath, head of the engineers bargaining committee, also said no firm offer had been made.

HYANNIS MAN HONORED AT STOCK SHOW

Denver (AP)—Earl Monahan of Hyannis, Neb., was honored at the National Western Livestock Show Wednesday night as the "man of the year" in livestock.

Monahan operates the Circle Dot ranches near Hyannis. The award he received is an annual honor presentation made by the Record Stockman, a Denver publication.

Opponents Still Not Satisfied

Want Route 3 Work Stopped

Alliance, Neb. (AP) — Gene Kemper, Alliance publisher and temporary chairman of the Greater Nebraska Interstate Inc., Wednesday night voiced objections of the corporation to Gov. Ralph Brooks' announced intention of permitting work to continue on Interstate Route 3 in Omaha pending a Feb. 2 hearing on the corporation's protest against the work.

Brooks earlier had called the Feb. 2 meeting to hear the corporation which wants outstate segments built ahead of the Omaha Route 3 segment, a downtown segment.

Kemper said Brooks "decision" to permit work to continue on Route 3 pending the hearing, asked by the corporation along with a suspension of Route 3 work, is "highly prejudicial to the majority of all Nebraskans who must pay for the highway."

Kemper said the corporation therefore asks again that work be suspended or that the protest hearing be moved up to Jan. 26.

"Your decision as it stands amounts to the endorsement of Route 3 by your administration and serves to extend present priorities for the downtown sector above all others outstate west of Lincoln," Kemper wired Brooks.

Kemper added "if the Highway Department is permitted to buy right of way in the interim period such acquisition will prejudice the Feb. 2 hearing in favor of Route 3, the only controversial priority in the Nebraska Interstate system. The danger exists that the Feb. 2 meeting could become nothing more than a whitewash of past policies."

Help Scotty Find Rebel

By Bill Anderson

Two-year-old Scotty Runyan cried himself to sleep last night.

He knelt by the bedside and prayed that his dog Rebel would come home, and then his mother tucked him in.

Rebel, a 2-year-old black and brown German shepherd, was not at Scotty's feet where he had slept since the boy was a year old.

It started when the shepherd cut a deep gash in his foot early Wednesday. Scotty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Runyan of 4241 Y, took the dog to a veterinarian in the afternoon and the cut was closed.

Rebel, groggy from anesthetic and wearing a white bandage on his paw, jumped from the car at 66th and Vine and ran into the neighborhood. He could not be found.

Humane Society officials searched the area, but Rebel remains lost. Scotty wants him home.

Nebraska In For More Cold Weather Thursday

Cold will continue to grip Nebraska Thursday, weather bureau officials predict, although a slight warming is scheduled for the west and south.

Temperatures are not slated to go above freezing Thursday because of a stationary high pressure ridge west of the state which will continue to push Arctic air and gusty northwesterly winds into Nebraska.

Five-day forecasts held out little hope of relief from the subfreezing weather. Temperatures are expected to remain 8 to 12 degrees below the normal highs of 35 to 41, and the possibility of snow is seen for the coming weekend.

West And South

West and south portions of the state are slated for temperature highs in the 20s, and highs in the northeast are expected to range from 10 to 20 Thursday.

No Nebraska weather station reported a high Wednesday above the freezing mark. State highs were registered at Sidney and Scottsbluff with 28. Lincoln had a 20-degree high after an overnight low of 2 above zero.

Low temperatures around the state reported Wednesday included a 10 below overnight low at Grand Island; -9 at North Platte; -8 at Norfolk, and -7 at Imperial.

Road Conditions

Road conditions — still far from normal — were reported greatly improved by State Maintenance Engineer John McMeekin Wednesday.

All secondary roads are reported open, although with many one-way stretches and ice and snow cover. Reports from the Greeley-Spalding area are still missing, McMeekin said.

Telephone service is also reported back to normal in the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph Co. southeastern Nebraska area.

-PRIMARY- Kennedy Decision Thursday

. . . In Omaha

Sen. John Kennedy of Massachusetts is expected to announce Thursday afternoon in Omaha that he will enter Nebraska's Democratic presidential preferential primary race May 10.

Kennedy

Kennedy will fly to Omaha from Milwaukee where he will reveal his plans concerning the Wisconsin primary.

The senator has called a press conference in Omaha for 3 p.m., shortly after he is scheduled to arrive by chartered plane.

Petitions Ready

Petitions sufficient to place Kennedy's name on the Nebraska ballot will probably be presented to the presidential hopeful at the Omaha session.

Kennedy will return to Washington following the news conference.

In Washington, the senator said he will announce both his Nebraska and Wisconsin decisions Thursday.

'Some Others'

"I'm going into some other primaries, too," the senator told capitol newsmen.

Kennedy arrived in Milwaukee Wednesday with his wife, Jacquelin declined to reveal his Wisconsin plans until Thursday morning.

Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota has announced that he will enter the Wisconsin primary, but he has thus far remained silent on his Nebraska plans.

Kennedy's brother, Robert, has advised the senator not to enter the Wisconsin race. He appeared more favorable toward the Cornhusker primary.

Justice Simmons In Fair Condition

Judge Robert G. Simmons, chief justice of the Nebraska Supreme Court, was still reported in fair condition Wednesday night at Lincoln General Hospital.

Today's Chuckle

The boss tapped one of his employes on the shoulder and said, "I wouldn't wake you, Smith, if it weren't important. You're fired!"

Ike Foresees A Glowing Economic Future, If...

INFLATION WARNING IS RENEWED

Washington (AP) — President Eisenhower drew Wednesday a glowing picture of a future America—increasingly prosperous, overflowing with well-being, leaping to a 750 billion dollar economy in the decade ahead.

An annual national output of three-quarters of a trillion dollars would be "half again what it is today," Eisenhower said. "And this performance could be bettered if . . ."

Because of the "If," the President coupled his predictions with calls for precautions in his annual Economic Report to Congress. This is the third and final major message required of the chief executive at the outset of a new session.

He spoke up not only for price stability but also for price reductions.

A Task For All

Eisenhower said, too, that continuing efforts must be put forth by consumers, labor, management and government to fend off inflation, speculative excesses and recessions.

And, as in his State of the Union and Budget messages, he once more urged Congress to heed his advice to balance the budget, put a hefty $4,200,000,000 surplus in the Treasury till and lift the 4½% lid on interest on long term government bonds.

Then, he said, an expansion in production, employment and income — business and personal—"will be extended through 1960. And there are good grounds for belief that, with appropriate public policies and private actions, the expansion can continue well beyond the present year."

In confident, optimistic terms, Eisenhower said the challenges and opportunities of the 1960s can be met.

He urged labor and management to hold wage boosts within the bounds of productivity boosts in order to stabilize prices and check inflation.

"Furthermore," he went on, "price reductions warranted by especially rapid productivity gains must be a normal and frequent feature of our economy. Without such reductions we shall not be able to keep the price level as a whole from advancing."

116 B58s Planned For SAC

Washington (AP) — Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates Jr. disclosed Wednesday that the Air Force will build 116 B58 supersonic bombers at a total cost of about $3.1 billion.

Gates told a news conference that the Strategic Air Command would have 3 wings of the new planes and that the remainder would be spares.

The Air Force has received or ordered in the current fiscal year ending next June 30 a total of 86 B58s, the nation's first bombers capable of sustained speeds faster than sound. This means that an additional 30 will be financed with funds included in the defense budget Congress is now considering for the next fiscal year .

Unlike other bomber wings of the Strategic Air Command, the B58 units will have fewer than the now standard 45 aircraft per wing.

question of construction priorities on the Interstate system.

"The presentation of your organization is to be made by an attorney or an engineer and not by any announced or unannounced candidate for any public office. The material presented should pertain only to construction priorities and should be accompanied by a written statement of all testimony adduced for consideration following the hearing."

In specific answer to Greater Nebraska Interstate's request that work be halted on the downtown Omaha route, Brooks wrote:

'Not Justified'

"In the meantime, the record does not justify the suspension of activity on Route 3 and the Highway Department will proceed with this work."

Conrad termed the Feb. 2 meeting an "audience" with the governor as requested by the group, and that a "big parade of witnesses" was "not contemplated at this time."

Asked if this meant there would be more of the Interstate Highway built outstate, Conrad replied, "There has never been any feeling that there wouldn't be."

NAVY PLANE IS SPOTTED

Ankara, Turkey (AP) — Two plane crashes, about 5 hours and 250 miles apart, appeared Wednesday night to have claimed 58 lives on Turkish slopes.

Wreckage of a U.S. Navy plane that vanished Tuesday with 16 aboard on a flight from Naples, Italy, to Adana, Turkey, was sighted on snow-capped Karanfil Dag — Pink Mountain — 15 miles northwest of Adana. Air search crews saw no signs of life. A 40-man American ground team toiled up from Adana to check the debris.

Russian Troop Cut Doubted

. . . By Sec. Brucker

Washington (AP) — Secretary of the Army Wilber M. Brucker Wednesday cast doubt on Russian intentions to carry through on loudly trumpeted troop cuts.

But Brucker told the Senate Armed Services Committee "there is ample evidence to support" Soviet Premier Khrushchev's boast that the Soviet Army's firepower —based on nuclear weapons and missiles—would remain enormous.

Saying Red Army ground forces would stay massive, even if reduced, Brucker appealed for modern equipment to enable the U.S. Army to make up in greater firepower and mobility for the Russian edge in numbers.

Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, the Army's chief of staff, backed Brucker's pitch for modernization funds.

Sharp Questioning

But both Democratic and Republican members of the committee demanded to know why—if modernization was so urgent—the Army apparently used only 43 million of 382 million dollars Congress voted for this purpose last year.

Brucker and Lemnitzer were questioned in secret session, and their replies on the modernization issue were not made public. The two top Army chiefs were recalled for more questioning Thursday.

Assuming the Russians do cut back their forces this time, they would be left with an estimated 2½ million men in ground units, according to U.S. intelligence estimates.

Decker Draws Life Pen Term

By Del Harding

Gerald Allen Decker was sentenced Wednesday to life imprisonment for the Dec. 14 fatal stabbing of Mrs. Edna Zajicek of 4911 Walker.

Lancaster District Judge Paul White pronounced sentence on the 15-year-old youth, who had pleaded guilty Dec. 22 to a second degree murder charge. The life term was the maximum penalty allowed on the second degree murder charge, and Decker could have received as few as 10 years in prison.

Judge White noted a 65-page pre-sentence investigation made by Adult Probation Officer Paul Beave contained a complete history of the boy and he said he could come to no other conclusion than to impose a life term.

Stabbed 8 Times

Judge White noted an autopsy report showed Mrs. Zajicek, 48, had been stabbed 8 to 10 times.

Decker showed no emotion as sentence was passed and he was then taken to the State Penitentiary to begin his term.

Decker told police he went to the Zajicek home early the morning of Dec. 14 to steal their car. He said Mrs. Zajicek screamed when she saw he had a knife and he stabbed her.

The boy has been a resident of the State Home for Children at 5701 Walker since 1952, and Mrs. Zajicek was matron at the home. Her husband is the home's night watchman, and Decker knew them both.

Trial Set For Hoffa

Washington (AP) — James R. Hoffa's trial for removal as Teamsters president on grounds he used union money to finance a Florida real estate deal was set Wednesday for Feb. 23.

The trial will be a civil proceeding, presumably without jury, before U.S. District Judge F. Dickinson Letts on charges brought by the court-appointed monitors to press a cleanup of the Teamsters' Union.

Hoffa is charged with misusing some $600,000 in funds of his Detroit home local No. 299. The money was deposited without interest in banks in Orlando, Fla., Cincinnati, Ohio, and New York.

The case however, centers around $400,000 the monitors contend was deposited in the Florida National Bank of Orlando, as collateral for a loan to the Sun Valley Development Corp., a project in which Hoffa at the time held a purchase option.

Former Gov. Victor Anderson said Wednesday he told the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce that Omaha's Chamber of Commerce was organized and extremely active on behalf of the Interstate inside Omaha during his administration.

At the same time, Anderson said, Lincoln and its Chamber of Commerce didn't appear to be very concerned about Interstate routes.

In answer to a question about how he felt regarding the present controversy, the former governor said that the Federal Bureau of Roads felt there was justification for the urban locations inside Omaha. Personally, he continued, he feels the question of priority of construction was proper to raise.

President To Visit Japan Next June

. . . On His Way Home From Tour Of Russia

Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower marked the start of his final year in office Wednesday by accepting an invitation to visit Japan next June on his way home from a tour of Russia.

The President also invited Japan's Crown Prince Akihito and his young wife, Princess Michiko, to come to the United States.

Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi promised Eisenhower at a White House meeting that he will try to arrange a visit by the royal couple in May or later.

This seventh anniversary of Eisenhower's first inauguration also brought from him a prediction dealing with domestic politics.

The president forecast to a meeting of young Republicans that the GOP will win at the polls in November if the party works hard, concentrates on organization, sells its principles to the public, and selects good candidates.

"Degree" Bestowed

Eisenhower, in turn, got an "honorary degree" from the young politicians who cited him for "mastery of the highest skills of political and governmental leadership."

In the Senate, Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois and others spoke highly of Eisenhower—and also of his vice president Richard M. Nixon.

As announced earlier, Eisenhower will tour the Soviet Union for 10 days starting June 10. He plans to arrive in Japan — probably after a trans-Siberian flight—about June 20.

There promptly was fresh speculation that the President may stop in other Far Eastern countries in traveling home. Among other nations mentioned were South Korea, Nationalist China, the Philippines and Indonesia. All have invited him to visit.

Russ Bigwig Loses Office

CRITICIZED BY KHRUSHCHEV FOR POOR GRAIN HARVEST

Moscow (UPI) — The man blamed by Soviet Premier Khrushchev for a large part of the Soviet harvest failure has been replaced as Communist party chief of the republic of Kazakhstan, Radio Moscow said Wednesday.

Nikolai Belyaev, a member of the Presidium, has been succeeded in the Kazakhstan party post by Dinmukhamed Kunaev, former premier of the republic.

Belyaev was singled out by Khrushchev in his Christmas Day speech that revealed the Soviet harvest was the worst in 4 years. Khrushchev said that 3 million acres of Kazakhstan grain went unharvested because farm machines were idled by breakdowns.

He said Belyaev should have informed Moscow of the trouble so that machines could have been airlifted from the Ukraine.

Belyaev was sent to Kazakhstan, a central Asian republic, in 1957, and became a key figure in Khrushchev's 7-year plan to catch up with the U. S. in agricultural production.

MILK TRUCK JACKKNIVES, HITS POLE

A milk transport jackknifed Wednesday morning at 48th and Cornhusker and smashed into a power pole.

The truck driver, Earl L. Biltoft, 24, of Superior, told police he applied his brakes to avoid hitting a car ahead of him and the truck jackknifed. He complained of a chest pain but police said he was not hospitalized.

Fire engines rushed to the scene when it was erroneously reported the truck involved was a gas transport and that it had caught fire. Traffic on Cornhusker Highway was tied up for some time because of the accident.

Reappraise Or Lose Out, Watersheders Told

By Louis Engel

The Upstream Watershed Development program will have to reappraise its needs in the light of other national needs or face the stockpiling of projects, a representative from the U.S. Department of Agriculture said at the Nebraska Watershed Workshop meeting Wednesday night.

Carl B. Brown, program director of watershed problems from Washington, D.C., told the group that over $5,000,000 has been used every year for the last 5 years for planning and unless the total can be held under $5,000,000, construction plans will have to be stockpiled because of lack of funds.

"The rate of planning is the key to the ultimate scope of the program," he said. "The records show a lack of balance between funds and planning and this must be corrected," he added.

Ultimate Plan

The watershed development program was adopted in 1956 to provide federal assistance to local watershed programs. Brown said the ultimate of the plan is to pave the way for a joint local, state and federal program that will meet the needs of all the people not just local people.

The projects are defined as local projects and are given federal assistance and Brown said, because of this the federal government has the right to determine if the local objective meets the wants of everyone.

Brown told the group that the government has approved 518 projects, or 37 million acres of land for watershed projects since the program started. He said that better than 12½ million acres of this land is already in operation and construction has started on most of the others.

Unsung Heroes

Earlier, Gov. Ralph Brooks termed soil and water conservationists of Nebraska the "unsung heroes of the battle in saving our soil and country."

Millions of tons of topsoil from Nebraska and the Midwest have been washed down to the Mississippi Delta, making it one of the most fertile areas in the world," he noted in an address to the Nebraska Watershed Workshop, sponsored by the State Soil and Water Conservation Committee.

It takes 100 years to replace one inch topsoil, he said.

Eye From Air

"Anyone flying over the state can see the results of soil conservation. The farm not contoured is gutted and ruined by uncontrolled water.

"In contrast, the contoured farm utilizes every drop of water to grow foliage, which retains and builds topsoil."

Governors and gubernatorial candidates were abounding at Wednesday's workshop sessions.

Ex-Gov. Robert Crosby of Lincoln, secretary of the Salt-Wahoo Watershed Assn., and State Sen. John Cooper of Humboldt, candidate for the GOP nomination as governor, participated in a panel on watershed legislation.

Speakers were Asst. Atty. Gen. Homer Hamilton and State Water Resources Director Dan S. Jones Jr.

Other panelists included Sen. Harold Stryker of Rising City and Dempsey McNiel of Holdrege, president of the Nebraska Assn. of Soil and Water Conservation districts.

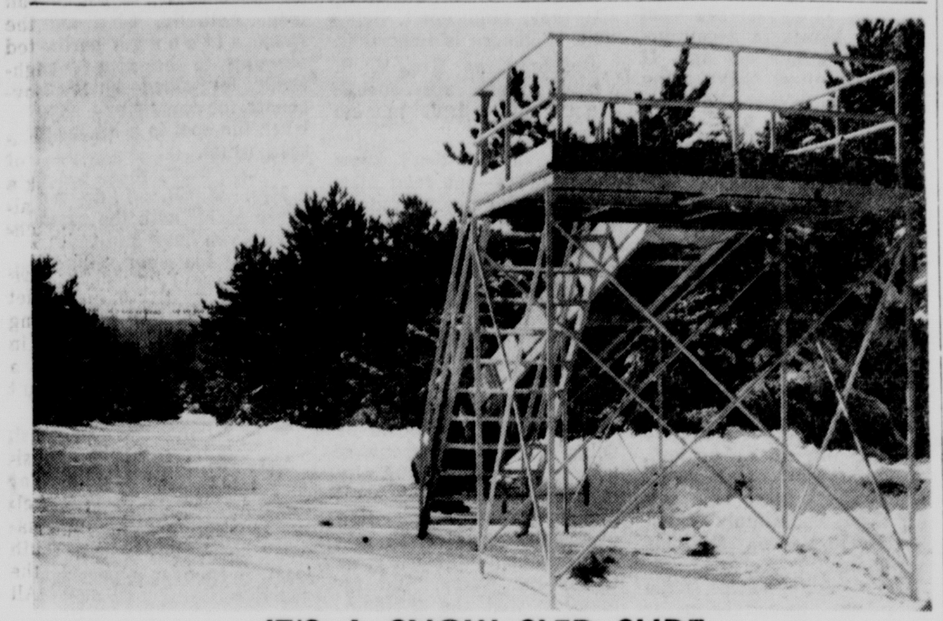
U.S. BUYING CAPONETTES

Washington (AP) — The Agriculture Department Wednesday sent out contracts to buy up 1,195,700 pounds of frozen poultry recently taken off the market because it was fed a harmone designed to hasten growth.

The poultry, designated in the trade as caponettes, was withdrawn by the industry at the behest of the Food and Drug Administration.

This agency said the hormone—stilbestrol—had been found to cause cancer in rats. Residues of the chemical were found in the liver, kidneys and skin of the poultry.

The agency has not decided what it will do with the poultry. Officials have indicated, however, that they hope to make it available for food use after removal of the skin, kidneys and liver.



IT'S A SNOW SLED SLIDE

This sled and tobaggan slide has just been completed at Pioneers Park by the City Park Dept. It's a snow-covered 30-foot sloping ramp suspended from a 20-foot tower. The lucky sledder can whiz through at least a quarter-mile of snow-framed parkland. Cost: only about $300. (Star Photo.)

Boyles Endorses Chamber In Opposing Rt. 3 Priority

By Virgil Falloon

Mayor Pat Boyles endorsed Wednesday the stand of the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce on the "construction priority" for the Nebraska Interstate Highway.

The Chamber is opposing any construction on the $48-million downtown Omaha segment of 3.9 miles (Route 3) until the basic Interstate is constructed west from Lincoln.

The mayor said he thinks the priority stand is justified, but added: "I wouldn't want to see Lincoln get mixed up with any groups that are opposing Interstate urban construction in principle."

Both For Urban

When Congress authorized 1,000 additional miles to the Interstate program, both the Omaha downtown route (Route 3) and Lincoln's Northeast Diagonal were proposed for urban routes.

"What I would like to know," said Boyles, "is what it took to get approval for Omaha's route while Lincoln, I'm informed, was flatly turned down twice."

Boyles indicated that so far as he could learn the turndown came from the state engineer (former State Engineer L. N. Ress).

Vic Hits Chamber

At the Chamber meeting Tuesday, former Gov. Victor Anderson defended the Omaha route decision and criticized the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce for past lack of interest or support in Interstate connections to Lincoln.

"No one (from Lincoln) came to the governor's office," Anderson said concerning the time the Omaha and Lincoln proposals were under consideration.

In other comments, Anderson also noted there was considerable Lincoln controversy over the city's 9th and 10th access connections to the Interstate before the final route decision.

2-Story Traffic Jam Now On At Pershing

By Nancy Ray

A two-story traffic jam swarming with curious pedestrians is now showing at the Pershing Municipal Auditorium—the 1960 Auto Show.

The bevy of 1960 models boast enough shine to impress a reviewing stand of 4-star generals, but keeping the shine free from fingerprints of the hundreds of admiring viewers kept auto company representatives on the jump.

Small foreign and American models shared the arena and downstairs showcase with their high-powered rivals, and all got a thorough once-over by the 1,559 persons who attended the grand opening Wednesday evening.

The show runs through Sunday night, opening at 5 p.m. Thursday and Friday and 1 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

Big Stage Show

An hour-long stage show proved the major drawing card Wednesday night, with the Sportsmen Quartet of Jack Benny fame hamming it up to the delight of the audience, and Florian ZaBach wining the complete silence of the audience during his intricate violin stylings.

Star of the stage show, Alice Lon, former "Champagne Lady" on the Lawrence Welk Show, drew applause for her singing of numbers ranging from bouncy novelties to sultry ballads.

In deference to the outside temperatures, few convertibles or suntops were featured in the Auto Show lineup, and "anti-freeze added" stickers on the new cars were numerous.

Wednesday's audience was over 50% female, perhaps due to the special style show which preceded the 8:30 p.m. entertainment.

Stage shows will be held at 8:30 p.m. Thursday and Friday, at 3:30, 7 and 9 p.m. Saturday and at 3:30 and 7 p.m. Sunday.

Warning to parents bringing children: Among the side booth displays is a complete set of midget racers waiting to be sat in. The booth attracted the younger viewers like a magnet, and later attracted the older generation trying to locate their children.

Nasser Plans Visit

Karachi, Pakistan (AP) — President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic has accepted a Pakistani invitation to visit Karachi after April 1, U.A.R. Ambassador Taha Fathe, El Din reports.

The Chain Of Suppression

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

The Cuban government is now taking what could well be the most conclusive step of all toward a strong and tight dictatorship. By the exercise of abusive controls over the press, the government is closing down its daily newspaper operations or running from them all those who would refuse to give up their rights of freedom. When this has been fully and completely accomplished, it will not be just the loss of a certain business or industry.

For freedom is not a principle which belongs to any one individual. Rather, it is something which belongs to the people and the press is merely one of the most outstanding methods of guaranteeing this right of the people. There is not a freedom which we have that is more important than this one. It is the free press which actually maintains and keeps alive the other freedoms which we enjoy. Free speech, free worship and the right to assemble are all cornerstones of our constitution but it is doubtful if any of them could stand without a free press.

Free Press First

This is not because the press necessarily exercises this privilege with particular wisdom and justice. At times it may fail to live up to the standards which this guarantee automatically imposes upon it. It is only hoped by those who work in and with this freedom that the rsponsibility is ably shouldered. But every bit as important as this is the principle involved.

If a nation does not believe in freedom of the press, it simply does not believe in freedom at all. Abuse or destruction of this freedom simply means that the nation involved lacks the moral courage and intellectual capacity to permit an honest appraisal of its position. It means that its methods and its programs are so weak that they cannot stand the scrutiny of the printed word and public discussion.

Such a nation is completely without a program which works for the progress and prosperity of its people. The same thing is true when freedom of the press is abridged in specific instances such as the withholding of information on various levels of government. It is safe to say that in more than 90 per cent of these cases there is no real justification for the action. Freedom of press assumes that the individual has the ability to distinguish right from wrong and to think for himself.

It is a fallacy to believe, as does the Castro regime, that any people can be sold a false bill of goods by being served false information. If Castro believes he can enhance his own position by labeling every story which appears in public print as good or bad, true or false, then he has a mistaken notion of the human mind and man's natural reasoning processes. The person who is really convinced of something is one who has become convinced through his own study and analysis of conditions. This is the only way in which true loyalty to any cause can be developed.

What Castro actually is saying is that he knows more about everything than anyone else in the country and that is the unmistakable mark of a dictator. The South American's trouble appears to be just what was feared when he came into office—a lack of enough ability to do the job. It was believed that Castro had good intentions and this may have been true but he was unable to find the means of carrying out his intentions.

When his plans and programs have not worked, he has taken it upon himself to make them work. This is a snowballing type of thing that can end in nothing but disaster. First, he closes down all opposition in the press to his programs because he feels adverse reaction there is the cause of his failure.

When this does not bail him out, he will have to turn to something else. The next place to turn is the people themselves who will be forced into accepting his programs because he believes they are right. Those who might choose another course of action are done away with as obstructionists. Soon, even the discussion of alternate courses of action is outlawed as an attempt to undermine the progress of the government. This, of course, calls for the control of elections if any are held because discontent can be expressed at the polls and this would disrupt the government's program.

Completing Control

It takes but a very short time for such an operation to reach the stage of full dictatorship. Then comes the real public disillusionment and awakening but it is too late to do anything about it. Castro has just about convinced us that the real problems of Cuba are just beginning. Another full round of controls, persecution and revolution appears to be in the offing.

Not Black And White

The Wall Street Journal's man visited the Chicago Board of Trade—a principle temple where grain men do the trading which accommodates the vast private market—and he heard a veteran trader remark that "in five or 10 years this place will be dead."

Such a pessimistic remark might have won little public attention but for the fact that a congressional investigating committee lately swung telling haymakers at the commercial grain men for alleged overfat profits from warehousing government grain. It was an investigation that made the grainmen wince because they felt they were not permitted to get their case in edgewise, that they were called in to verify spot instances, selected by the investigators, and not allowed to review all of the circumstances related to the business.

In behalf of the commercial grain interests it must be conceded that they engage both in the business of storage and in the business of servicing the national demand in acquiring, selling and moving grain in the commercial market. And in that sense their function is not accurately comparable to the government grain bin or the on-the-farm facility where no service is engaged in other than that of storing grain. The latter two need not maintain headhouses, trackage and work crews and all other requirements of commercial service.

What the veteran grain man meant in his glum statement in the Chicago pit was that under the present circumstances of virtually fixed prices due to the federal farm program's price support and stabilizing program no sufficient price fluctuation is left to support the essential services of the commercial field, albeit that service cannot be abandoned. Storage is a resort.

It is true that the base storage allowance for the farmer and the commercial warehouse man varies but little, hardly more than a fraction of a cent a bushel. The disparity comes in the service allowance for in and out charges collected by the commercial man in view of the special facilities required of him.

Nasser Gets His Way

The United Arab Republic, Col. Nasser of Egypt speaking, has negotiated a $56 million loan with the World Bank. The United States has acquiesced.

The loan is for the purpose of widening the Suez Canal, an accomodation in terms of added revenue for Egypt, and also for certain nations using the canal, but not all. Egypt bars Israeli ships and in certain instances Israeli products. The loan contains no agreement to end this injustice.

The World Bank may well argue that the loan was and should have been made on the basis of economics and that any attempt to use it to modify UAR public policy would have been political and, therefore, improper. But there is a flaw in this. The World Bank actually is a political creation whose function it is to strengthen the position of the United States and the western society in the current world power struggle.

If this $56 million loan is not dealt with as an isolated piece of business, but rather placed in the context of the whole UAR-Western picture, the only conclusion that can be drawn is that the West is still being outridden by Col. Nasser.

The history of the western retreat can well begin with the late Secretary Dulles' rejection of economic aid for the construction of Egypt's Aswan dam, a rejection associated with Egypt's deal with the Communists for arms in which he mortgaged Egypt's cotton production. The Aswan crisis prompted Nasser's seizure of the canal. When France and England moved to prevent it the United States intervened. The result was that Nasser got the canal. When he got it he barred Israel with whom Egypt continues an unresolved truce.

Recently Nasser covenanted with Russia for economic aid for the construction of the Aswan dam. So almost every point of contention has reached the end of a chapter which finds Nasser holding all the gains and the U.S. none of any consequence.

Danger Or Evil

Sometimes the line between two words is pretty thin and this seems to be the case in connection with one aspect of the Senate investigation of drug prices. Department of Health, Education and Welfare figures show that Americans in 1958, for the first time in history, spent more for drugs and medical appliances ($4.4 billion) than for physicians' services ($4.3 billion), and almost as much as for hospital care ($5.1 billion).

Editorial Research Reports says that this led the New York Times to caution that in major illnesses where there are doctor and hospital bills to pay, "drug costs may . . . be so high as to prevent people from receiving proper medical treatment, or make them hesitate to get their prescription filled.

The danger is there, says Editorial Research Reports, but it perhaps is overstated. The Federal Trade Commission has observed: "A high price will do less to discourage demand (for prescription drugs) than in many other industries." In other words, most people will pay what is asked for medicine prescribed by a physician, even if they think the price is unreasonably high, for in time of illness they see no alternative.

And there is where we have a fine line between two words—one the noun danger and the other the adjective evil. For if drug prices are excessive and this is not a danger, then it is certainly an evil and one is about as bad as the other. Certainly, nothing is gained from showing that there is no danger because people will pay the price in the belief that they have to.

When this entire issue of medical care echoes through the halls of Congress, such things as the rising cost of drugs on the part of wholesale suppliers are going to have a telling effect. Those who do not believe in government intervention in the nation's medical care have more to do than merely oppose this principle. The drug industry and the medical profession are going to have to see that they give the government no cause for action.

Exorbitant Price Of Keeping Calm

(Editor's Note: The Kefauver hearings on the cost of drugs resume today. Today's column on the high price of tranquilizers is by Mr. Pearson's assistant, Jack Anderson.)

WASHINGTON — Senator Kefauver's drug investigation will shortly make public some amazing figures showing that the tranquilizer habit is costing Americans a fantastic fortune.

They buy more soothing pills than any other drug sold over the prescription counter. The price they pay is so high, however, that it almost counteracts the bliss the pills are supposed to induce.

Sen. Kefauver's antitrust investigators have found that the big drug companies are charging Americans three times what the same tranquilizing pills cost in other countries.

Kefauver's probers have found that the most popular tranquilizer for people with ragged nerves is put out by Carter products under the brand name Miltown. The same basic pill has also been licensed to American Home Products which sells it under the brand name Equanil. A bottle of 50 tablets (400 mg.) is sold to American druggists for $3.25, who then retail them for $5.40. Yet you can cross the Mexican border and buy Miltown for only $2.40 a bottle and Equanil for $2.18. The Mexican druggist pays only $2 and $1.80 respectively.

In Germany, Miltown sells to druggists for 69 cents; retails for $1.33. Other brand names with the same ingredients sell for as low as 66 cents to the druggist and $1.30 to the consumer.

In Austria, according to the Commerce Department, Miltown wholesales for $1.56 and retails for $3.02. The same bottle of pills sells in the United States for $5.40. Another brand, of identical ingredients, sells in Austria for only 69 cents to the druggist, $1.18 to the consumer.

A French tranqilizer called chlorpromazine is marketed in the United States through Smith, Kline & French. This is sold in the U.S. under the brand name Thorazine for $3.03, druggists' price for a 50-tablet bottle (25 mg.). In France, the same product sells to the druggist for only 77 cents. In Austria it costs 94 cents. Another French tranquilizer, Compazine, is marketed here by Smith, Kline & French for $3.93 as compared to $1.20 in France. Most of the difference, of course, goes into the pockets of the drug firm.

DORIS FLEESON

Chairman Choice Between Two Equals

WASHINGTON — A struggle in which the stakes are really high is developing between two attractive, able House Democrats, Richard Bolling of Missouri and Hale Boggs of Louisiana.

The immediate prize they seek is the post of permanent chairman of the Democratic National Convention next summer. The laurel wreath which the winner of that contest might well achieve by doing an excellent job in Los Angeles is the speakership.

Attention today naturally centers on the convention job, for it is widely believed that the always-powerful chairman will have an unusually great opportunity this year to influence the choice of the national ticket. The race is still wide open, and there seems little prospect that any one candidate can obtain a commanding lead in the early balloting.

But members of Congress are, and have been for some time, deeply concerned with the question of Speaker Sam Rayburn's heir-apparent. They know that both Boggs and Bolling stand high in the speaker's esteem; they see clearly the great advantage it would be to either one to succeed Rayburn as permanent chairman of the convention.

What makes their decision hard with respect to the convention is that the two representatives have so much in their favor and so much the same assets. Besides being acceptable to Rayburn, they are both photogenic, both able presiding officers of the House, both fighters for the party and both tolerant liberals.

The big difference is, however, important. In the first wave of emotion following the Supreme Court decision outlawing segregation in public schools, nearly all Southern members of Congress were swept into signing a southern manifesto against it. Only a few house southerners and three senators—Estes Kefauver and Albert Gore of Tennessee and Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas—abstained. Johnson said he did not think that as leader he should sign.

Boggs signed. And it is this rather than any thought of his southern background and his religious affiliation, which is Catholic, that is troubling party leaders. Some perhaps would prefer that his southern origin was a little less noticeable, but none believe he would show favoritism toward Senator John Kennedy of Massachusetts, the Catholic contender.

☆ ☆ ☆

A telling argument being made for Boggs is that it will be very difficult to find a good job to give the South at Los Angeles without risking the alienation of the big states. National Chairman Paul Butler and his advisers, who are in firm control of the convention machinery, have every wish to be conciliatory where they feel they can.

They do intend to have a firmly liberal platform and keynoter. Their tentative choice for platform chairman is Senator Joseph Clark of Pennsylvania, and they are shopping for a midwest or western governor to give the keynote speech.

It is argued for Boggs, as well, that Bolling, as a Missourian, is in the presidential camp of Missouri's Senator Stuart Symington. Nobody believes Bolling would be unfair, however, any more than they suspect it of Boggs.

JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

To Your Good Health

"Dear Dr. Molner: I am 75, a widow trying to be admitted to a home for the aged. Everywhere I apply it is the same story. A waiting list and a five- or six-year wait.

Dr. Molner

"I have tried church homes and a few homes for widows without success. All these homes require everything you have, including social security.

"I have both money and social security but it doesn't matter. There are not enough homes to accommodate us in our old age. If you know of any home would you please let me know?—Mrs. V. R."

This is not exactly a medical problem. Yet it certainly relates to health. I cannot say that I "know the answer," yet I do think we should all say that it certainly is a problem that can be solved. And, of course, must be solved.

It isn't true that the existing homes necessarily "require everything you have." No doubt this is true of some; things doubtless average off, more or less, over the years, and people who possess more help pay for those who simply do not have enough to pay for their sustenance.

There are, of course, some current investigations or studies of this problem. I hope useful ideas will develop from them. At the same time, I hope this is not going to be a problem dumped into the lap of the federal government.

Providing a proper place for the older citizens to live is not, I suspect, going to be worked out to its best solution if we depend on any rigid, uniform (and, no doubt, costly) "plan."

Old people don't fit into fixed patterns any more than you or I do. The more flexibility, the more choice available, the better.

For example, I know of one excellent home on the edge of my city, which is highly regarded by everyone. And another home, just as highly regarded, is right downtown. A church took over a large hotel and turned it into a home for the elderly. Many older people very much prefer "being in the center of things." A two-block walk from the door of the hotel affords them all sorts of window-shopping, and a chance to be part of the crowd. Some like that; some don't. Being able to choose is important.

But until, as Mrs. V. R. writes, there are enough places, there isn't much choice.

As I said, I don't know the answers—but read Mrs. V. R.'s letter again. And remember that we are constantly having more and more people living into the 70's, 80's and 90's.

This isn't an abstract "problem of society." It is a real, personal, brutally difficult problem for thousands upon thousands of Mrs. V. R.'s. We should be doing something about it now in every town and city in the land. Unless we start making some progress—find places for the Mrs. V. R.'s—the problem will just grow worse and worse. And remember that the problem, sooner or later, will be one all of us must face.

"Dear Dr. Molner: I have heard that phenobarbital taken for the nerves will cause one to feel depressed. Is this so?—J. K."

Yes, large doses will depress—but as with any drug, a "large dose" for one person may be moderate for another. Some people, if there is genuine need for it, can take one quarter grain three times a day without trouble. Yet others may be depressed on this same amount.

☆ ☆ ☆

"Dear Dr. Molner: Are all babies born with a soft spot on the top of the head? Are these spots usually round and about the size of a quarter? My first four had small soft spots. The fifth has a larger one, and shaped like a four-pointed star.—Mrs. N. W. W."

The soft spot, or fontanelle, is the place where, in due time, the sections of the skull finally join and harden. The "star shape" is normal enough but not common. Actually, the small spots, although perhaps seeming to be round, are really four-sided which accounts for the "star" shape when the spot is a bit larger than usual.

☆ ☆ ☆

Mrs. M. B.: I do not agree at all with the casual advice you have had regarding your son's ear. This periodic aching, followed by matter running from the ear, indicates an infection, and it is decidedly more than "just a punctured ear drum." I would take him to an ear specialist.

☆ ☆ ☆

Note To Mrs. M. L. J.: Two tablespoons of wine a day for medicinal purposes as in your case certainly won't harm your liver in the least, even over a period of years.

☆ ☆ ☆

"Dear Dr. Molner: Is it harmful for a man with high blood pressure to eat sauerkraut? He thinks it is good for the liver.—M. S."

The only objection would be its salt content if his doctor ordered a low salt diet.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Reader's questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Mystifying

Unadilla, Neb.

I noticed in listening to "Face The Nation" program on Jan. 17 that Secretary Benson used some very deceptive figures which undoubtedly misled uninformed people. He said that four-fifths of the agricultural products were not in trouble, implying that to be the result of his program.

What he did not say is that the one-fifth — wheat, feed grains, poultry and eggs, hogs and tobacco—is an extremely important one-fifth. In relation to poultry and eggs, he said the reason they were in trouble was the high cost of price-supported feed grains. The secretary keeps saying that his program will raise farm income and yet he is suggesting lower grain prices when they are already disastrously low in relation to farm costs. How come?

Secretary Benson keeps screaming that we are pricing ourselves out of the market, which must imply prices are too high—and yet that his program will raise farm income. That is the most mystifying mystification of our times.

Cool Hot-Rodders

Lincoln, Neb.

There are so many bad stories told of our teenagers and hot-rodders, that I thought readers would like to hear of something good for a change.

MRS. W.C.W.

Editor's Note: Enclosed was an item telling of a David City man who had a flat tire along the highway, and saw a couple of young fellows in a car stop, get out and rush toward him. He was somewhat apprehensive, but the young men took the tire tools from him and in no time at all had the tire changed. Just before driving away, they handed him a card which read: "You have been assisted by a member of the Pharaoh's Hot Rod Club, member of the National Hot Rod Association, Bassett, Neb., a club devoted to safety and courtesy on the highway."

Finigan Case

Lincoln, Neb.

I have just read with interest an article in The Star which reported the action by Municipal Judge John Jacobson in acquitting Mrs. Jean C. Finigan of drunken driving. Apparently Mrs. Finigan was arrested upon the instigation of Gov. Ralph Brooks and his safety patrol driver, Lt. Alvin Jensen. Apparently she was acquitted because of lack of evidence. Gov. Brooks was subpoenaed to appear as witness but he did not show up. I realize that under the law, Gov. Brooks could not be forced to appear. However, inasmuch as the subpoena had been issued, he could have waived his immunity. It occurs to me that if the governor took such particular interest in the matter to instigate the arrest and procure the publicity in enforcing his safety drive, he likewise should have followed his original inclination and at least should have told the court what he knew about the matter as an eye witness.

If he is going to inject his personality into traffic control, he should at least follow through in those matters which come to his own personal knowledge and in which he is personally responsible for causing the arrest.

Income Taxes

Lincoln, Neb.

It's with us again — income-tax-paying time. And the disgusting thing is that it is not necessary. The money taken in from income taxes can be equalled by taking the federal government out of corporate business, such as the sugar corporation, for example. There are over 700 of these corporations. They are tax-free. Most of these projects operate with a deficit that is paid out of the general fund. House Bill 23 now on the floor would compel their sale to private interests and put them back on the tax rolls.

Our government ran for 130 years without an income tax. Twice before we have had an income tax for brief periods. Both times it was repealed. It can be repealed again by the 23rd Amendment.

What we need is a conservative party. The Republicans and Democrats have moved so far to the left that the American eagle cannot continue to fly on two wings. The trouble with the "liberals" is that they are more concerned with sharing other people's wealth than with producing it. Both old parties in the coming campaign will have identical rally cries which will be "Peace, Progress and Prosperity," with peace meaning continued appeasement of communist Russia and continued summit meetings at which we lose ground each time, progress meaning rapidly progressing into a socialistic dictatorship where once free Americans will be tax slaves to support the giant of federal tyranny, and prosperity meaning a phony prosperity, its true name.

Inflation is reducing the value of the dollars in your pocket, your savings and your insurance policy.

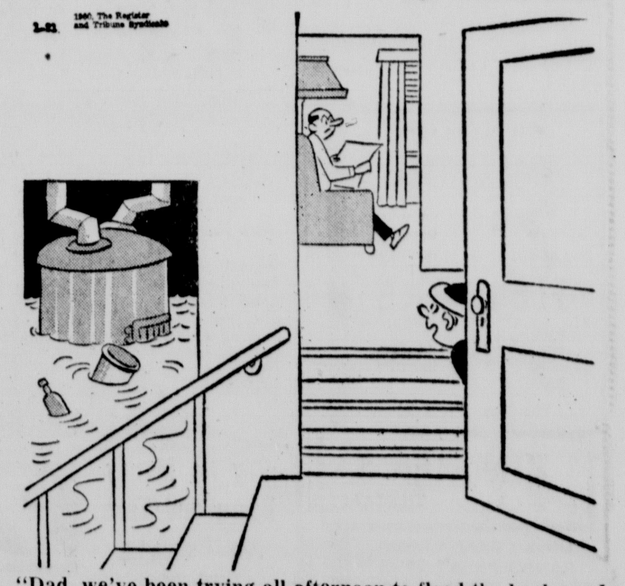
OFF THE RECORD By Ed. Reed



"Dad, we've been trying all afternoon to flood the back yard for skating, but the water keeps leaking away someplace."

Stan Delaplane's POSTCARD

A sale this morning at our village Sports Shop — "EVERYTHING MUST GO! MAKE US AN OFFER!"

I went in and made an offer. I bought a can of mosquito repellent for half a buck. We have no mosquitoes. But what a price! I bought an elastic gadget that slips on your glasses. Keeps them from falling off.

My glasses do not fall off. But I cannot resist a sale. At least not one of those sales where everything is dumped in a bin, helter-skelter. "Everything in this box, 50 cents!"

☆ ☆ ☆

Am planning an immediate trip to Central America. The mosquito repellent can be used there.

I will drive down, picking up a car in Mexico City.

The AAA recently released a report. They said the road is impossible.

Now I get a letter from the Costa Rican government. They said the AAA drivers were liars—that was just the beginning. Second, they were poor drivers.

I love a rhubarb better than a sale. I want to get in on this.

☆ ☆ ☆

The rubber band for the glasses will come in handy at the Winter Olympics, Squaw Valley, Calif.

All us sports like to keep our glasses on when we schuss down the snowy slopes.

I do not intend to schuss a great deal. I am a director of the International Press Club which is over in Reno. In the Skyroom of the Mapes. That is an excellent place to keep your glasses on. Without glasses, you cannot see the other end of the table. You have to take the stickman's word for it what number you rolled.

☆ ☆ ☆

Being a director in an international event is costing me a great deal of money. Eyeglass holders (and I suppose I will have to buy a new parka).

Phone calls are killing me. I telephone Uncle Walter.

Uncle Walter is not MY Uncle Walter. He is Walter Ramage, who manages the Mapes. He is my child's godfather.

The conversation is something like this:

"Walter, I am having trouble getting those Astrakan hats."

"Order about 100. Can't you call Khrushchev?" The kids are now on the extension blower. "Hi, Uncle Walter." "Hi, kids. Now tell me everything that you've been doing."

"Walter," I said. "This is long distance. On MY phone."

"Well, Uncle Walter, we went to school and there was this girl, see? And she said—."

"GET OFF THE PHONE! I am talking business with Walter!"

"Let them talk a minute. Now, kids, what happened then? By the way, make one of those hats a 7¾."

"Who is it for? The Abominable Snowman? Nobody wears 7¾."

"Well, it was this way, Uncle Walter . . ."

We lead a talkative life on long distance.

When we have friends in town, on a 10-cent range, they cannot think of a thing to say.

"Talk to your grandma?"

"I don't know what to say."

Let grandma get in New York. We begin to recite Shakespeare's entire works.

Where were we? Oh, yes, the sale. I saved a lot of money on that sale. Those eyeglass holders are marked plain as day on the box, $1. I got them for a half.

The mosquito repellent was $1.25. I got that for a half, too. Saving like that is what makes men rich. "A penny saved, etc." I have a Captain of Industry kind of mind. "Take care of the little things, etc."

We saved $1.25 on the sale. Spent $10.50 on the telephone. And it all has something to do with taxes that I cannot understand. But I think I am winners even if it looks like I am losers.

Jan. 1 Cattle On Feed 2nd Highest Mark

Nebraska had an estimated 665,000 cattle and calves on grain feed for market as of Jan. 1, the second highest total of record for the start of a year, the State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics reported.

The old record was 731,000 head on feed Jan. 1, 1953.

The current estimate tops by 4% the figure of a year earlier and represents a 23% increase since Oct. 1, compared with a 44% increase in the final quarter of the preceding year.

Nebraska feeders placed 464,000 cattle and calves in feed lots during the final quarter of 1959, or 3% less than the same quarter a year earlier.

Marketings of fed cattle from Nebraska for the quarter increased 19% from the comparable quarter in 1958.

Of the beef animals on feed calves accounted for 204,000 head and steers and steer calves accounted for 454,000 head.

Nebraska feeders expect to market 56% of their Jan. 1 holdings in the next 3 months. The plans call for the heaviest marketings in February, with the lightest movement intended for March.

In the 26 cattle feeding states as a group, the number of cattle and calves on feed Jan. 1 totaled a record high of 7,198,000.

Beezley To Head Engineer's Group

Nate Beezley has been elected president of the Lincoln Engineers' Club, for the coming year.

SPECIAL DISCOUNTS STARTING TODAY

Act now, right now, and you can save yourself a big pocketful of cash on any used car in our lot.

OUR PROBLEM—YOUR PROFIT. You see, we've been selling so many new cars, we're up to our ears with cars taken in trade. We had to do something drastic. When you see the eye-popping price reductions we've made for Discount Days, you'll know we weren't kidding.

WHY THESE CARS ARE IN BETTER CONDITION. The tremendous appeal of our 1960 Lincolns and Mercurys is causing lots of people to trade their present cars much sooner than they normally would. They're trading before their cars "need everything." For the same reasons you'll get a terrific variety to choose from—it seems all kinds of owners are switching to Lincoln and Mercury.

You'll get the best selection right now. So why delay, make your choice and get your discount today!

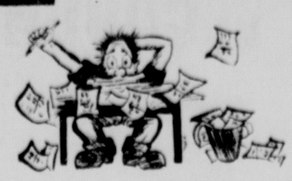
YOUR INCOME TAX

Farmers To Pay Social Security Tax



(Editor's Note: This is the fourth in a series of articles on the federal income tax.)

Most farmers must pay a federal self-employment tax for 1959.

James L. McCrory, director of internal revenue for the Omaha District, said the rate of self-employment tax for 1959 is 3¾%, and is in addition to any income tax payable.

Under the Federal Social Security law, McCrory said, Social Security taxes are paid by employers and their employes, and the self-employment tax must be paid by persons who are self-employed.

These taxes are used to pay old-age, survivors and disability benefits under the federal social security program, McCrory said.

A self-employed person is anyone who operates his own business, and thus a farmer who operates a farm, either on his own land or on land rented from others, is self-employed. This is true, McCrory said, even though the farmer may employ someone else to do the farm work and not live on the farm himself.

Farmers must file an income tax return and pay any self-employed tax due even though they owe no income tax.

Ordinarily farmers must have net earnings of $400 or more from self-employment before self-employment tax is due, McCrory said. Some farmer who have actual net earnings of less than $400 from operation of their farms elect to pay the self-employment tax anyway in order to qualify to receive benefits under the social security system.

Farmers who have any questions on this subject may obtain a copy of the free publication "Farmers' Tax Guide" at their local internal revenue office or their county agent.

Appraisals Made Of Homes Near Governor's Manse

Appraisals are now being made in preparation for the purchase of several homes located south of the Governor's Mansion, Building and Grounds Superintendent James R. Delehant said.

Acquisition of the property was authorized by the 1959 Legislature in order to enlarge and beautify the Mansion grounds.

The appraisals are being conducted by the right-of-way division of the State Highway Department, Delehant said.

Funds for acquiring the property will come from the Capitol Building's share of the special building fund levy.

Accounting Setup Eyed By Committee

Questionnaires concerning the use of the state's central accounting system and microfilming state records have been sent each agency of state government by Sen. Otto Liebers, chairman of the Legislative Council Committee on State Government Reorganization.

The committee study includes the feasibility of continuing the central accounting system which was instituted in 1958 with the idea of gradually absorbing the bookkeeping work being done in the code departments.

A total of 15 agencies now are using the system, but there is some question about continuing the practice unless more agencies start using the electronic equipment and cut the cost of its operation.

Purpose of the study involving microfilming of state records is to determine what storage space could be saved, if this practice were enlarged.

Liebers has asked the departments to return the questionnaires by next Monday so that the information will be available to the committee at its next meeting in February.

Unveil Woods Award Friday At Wesleyan

A Wesleyan University faculty member will be revealed as winner of the 4th Annual Woods Award for Distinguished Teaching at a Founders Day Convocation Friday.

President Vance D. Rogers will present the citation and $1,000 check to the teacher who "has contributed unusual talent and training to classroom teaching, and has shown through teaching that spirit of dedication that makes for Great Teaching."

The award was made possible through a $5,000 grant to Wesleyan by the Woods Charitable Fund, Inc., of Lincoln, in 1957, to encourage the continuation of the Wesleyan ideal of Great Teaching.

The convocation, commemorating the 73rd anniversary of Wesleyan's founding on January 20, 1887, will be highlighted by an address by William H. Burkhart, chairman of the board of Lever Brothers Co. of New York City.

Wesleyan will present distinguished citizen citations to Mrs. Lena Hahn of Omaha and the Rev. Dr. Frank A. Court of Lincoln.

Mrs. Hazel Abel and the Rev. Dr. Harold Sandall, both of Lincoln, will assist Dr. Rogers in citing the distinguished citizens and Dr. Sam Dahl, assistant to the president and Dean of the College, will present the recipient of the teaching award.

Mrs. C. F. Bryant Joins Tax Chief's New Study Staff

Mrs. Claude F. Bryant of Lincoln has been employed by the State Tax Commissioner's office to help Charles Smith of that office in the new research program begun by Forrest A. Johnson, tax chief.

W. E. Daugherty, assistant tax commissioner, said Mrs. Bryant has had "substantial experience in both public and private accounting fields."

During World War II Mrs. Bryant worked in the accounting department at Lincoln Air Force Base, and also as private secretary to the fiscal officer.

She was recording secretary for the Lincoln Women's Club for two years, and also served as treasurer.

The research program started by Johnson will seek extensive information related to the various functions of the tax commissioner's office.

Louis Roper Receives JayCee Service Award

Louis L. Roper was presented the Lincoln Junior Chamber of Commerce 1959 Distinguished Service Award at a luncheon meeting of the Jaycees Wednesday.

Roper, 28, is the son of Max Roper, who was the recipient of the award in 1941.

The award is made annually to a man, under the age of 36, who has made outstanding contributions to community welfare during the year and who has shown evidence of leadership ability and personal or business progress.

'Man Of Action'

Richard Chapin, in making the award, described young Roper as "a man of action."

Born in Lincoln, Roper was graduated from Lincoln High School and the University of Nebraska. He is an assistant vice president of the First National Bank of Lincoln.

Roper's activities include Lincoln Jaycees director,

LOUIS L. ROPER

Lincoln Community Concert Assn. director and treasurer, past president and board member of the Lincoln Chapter of the American Institute of Banking, chairman of the 1959 Lincoln-Lancaster County March of Dimes, board member of the Lincoln-Lancaster County Chapter of the National Foundation, president of the Extra Point Club, vice chairman of both the Miss Nebraska and Miss Lincoln Pageants of 1959, coach for the Downtown Merchants Lions midget football team, and a member of the Interfraternity Advisory Council at the University of Nebraska.

Memberships

He is also a member of the Lincoln Lions Club, the Lincoln Ad Club, Sowers Club, Alumni "N" Club, American Legion Post 3, Ak-Sar-Ben, North Star Lodge 227, AF&AM, Scottish Rite, Shrine, Shrine Oriental Band, Nebraska Alumni Assn., Westminster Presbyterian Church and the board of ushers, board of Downtown Lincoln Assn., and co-chairman of the NCAA track and field meet and chairman of the Youth Jamboree Committee.

He is also a co-general coordinator for the District 10 regional convention of the American Institute of Banking and a member of the committee for the 1960 Shrine Bowl Football Game.

Previous recipients of the Distinguished Service Award are:

Harold E. Anderson, Sidney S. Anderson, Chauncey E. Barney, John M. Campbell, Richard Chapin, Vince Collura, Edwin F. Dosek, Gene Eaton, Russ Eichelberger, Nate C. Holman, Dean Kratz, Raymond A. McConnell Jr., Herbert F. McCulla, Elmer Magee, B. I. Noble, Thomas R. Pansing, Les Rau, Max Roper, George Sauer, Charles Thone and Judge Robert Van Pelt.

Broad-Minded

London (AP) — Pretty Mrs. Russell Bennett won a divorce after testifying her husband refused to protect her from the advances of his twin brother.

Mrs. Bennett, a shapely, 25-year-old blonde, told the court her brother-in-law, Kenneth, repeatedly sought to force his intentions upon her.

Mrs. Bennett said that on one occasion when she complained to her husband about Kenneth, he replied: "He is my brother. I don't mind."

R. B. KRAMER IN DISTRICT 42 UNICAM RACE

Robert B. Kramer of Scottsbluff filed Wednesday as a candidate for the Legislature from the 42nd District.

The post is now held by Sen. Terry Carpenter who has not yet announced his political plans for 1960.

Theodore H. McCosh of Gering also has filed for the post.

Sen. John Adams Sr. of Omaha also filed for the Legislature Wednesday seeking a 7th consecutive term from the 5th District.

Judge John H. Kuns of Kimball filed as a candidate for re-election to the bench from the 11th Judicial District.

The other judge in the 13th District, I. J. Nisely, will retire at the end of this term.

Attorney General C. S. Beck, whose residence is North Platte, and Gothenburg attorney William S. Padley have filed for this post.

The 13th Judicial District is composed of Cheyenne, Dawson, Deuel, Keith, Kimball, Lincoln, McPherson, Arthur and Banner Counties.

Fire caused considerable damage Wednesday morning at the Marvin Ward Body & Fender Service at 2535 No. 14th.

Firemen said the blaze apparently was set off by a spark from a welding torch.

Nebraskans Garner 17 MD Awards

State Commissioner of Education Freeman B. Decker, State March of Dimes Committee member, announced that 17 March of Dimes scholarships, fellowships and special medical-scientific study stipends totaling $12,432 were awarded to promising young Nebraska men and women during 1959.

The following awards were made for physical therapy study: Max A. Beyersdorf of Grand Island, $1,671.25; James A. Carlson of Oshkosh, $1,218.75; Marily Harper of Lincoln, $992.50, and Calvin B. McIlwain of Lincoln, $1,150.

Lawrence James Kelly of Scottsbluff, Samuel D. Porter of Omaha and Gerald Joseph Spethman of Omaha, were each awarded $600 for rehabilitation.

Awards of $600 each for medical student research were presented to Bernard Nathan Harris of Omaha, Thomas Victor Toft of Omaha, and Mary Ruth Weisel of Fairbury.

Public health awards of $600 each were awarded Thomas A. Beck of Omaha, John Joseph Fitzpatrick of Omaha, and Jere L. Williams of Lincoln.

Health scholarships amounting to $500 each were awarded Twila Ann Larson of Gurley, Barbara A. Oliver of Papillion, Mary E. Goldbeck of Hastings and Lorene M. Anastasi of Omaha.

Gates Reports Progress Made In Theft Problem

Washington (AP)—Some progress has been made in solving the problem of thefts from American servicemen in the Philippines, Defense Secretary Thomas S. Gates Jr., has told Nebraska Rep. Phil Weaver.

Gates made the statement in answer to questions of Weaver during a recent meeting of the House Defense subcommittee on which Weaver serves.

Weaver, following a trip to the Philippines late last year, charged that American servicemen were victimized by looting, extortion and assault in the islands.

Gates said most of the problem "has been in connection with some Filipinos in our employ who have shot Filipino thieves. Unfortunately, this got into a rather difficult situation . . ."

Council Explains

Port Credit, Ont. (AP) — The village council has come up with an explanation for complaints that local water spoils liquor and ruins laundry — an accident at a refining plant allowed a large quantity of phenol to flow into Lake Ontario near the village filtration plant.

Slump In 'Hopper Population Seen

Omaha (AP) — The Great Plains Agricultural Council's insect control committee has good news for farmers.

Harold E. Jones of Kansas State University, said it appears last fall's egg-laying was the lowest in 3 years. This means the migratory grasshopper population in the area may slump, he said.

He said temperature, moisture and cover conditions combined to slow down the egg-laying.

He added that if spring brings ideal conditions for hatching the picture will change by late summer.

2 Lincolnites To Attend Exceptional Children Council Meeting

Two well-known Lincoln authorities on gifted and retarded children, Dr. Marshall Hiskey and Dr. Vernon Hungate, will leave in April for Los Angeles for the International Conference of the Council for Exceptional Children.

Dr. Hiskey, professor of educational psychology and measurements at the University of Nebraska, will be chairmen of the sectional meeting where the development of new programs for exceptional children through educational and psychological diagnosis will be discussed.

Dr. Hungate, educational director of the Nebraska Board of Control, will also attend the meeting and will take part in another session.

Dr. Hiskey said the University's department of educational psychology and measurements is now able to aid from 500 to 800 children in the state each year.

"If we use the state's criteria and legal description we find that there are approximately 25,000 retarded children in the state that should receive attention," he said.

"Increased teachers' requirements in the field of aiding the gifted and retarded child will soon be reflected in an increased number of Teachers College students at the University who will study the psychological behavior of school children," he said.

The educational psychologist said only one of 15 retarded and gifted children in the state is getting the proper kind of attention because of a lack of qualified teachers.

Two local chapters of the council recently formed by the University and the Dept. of Education include one in central Nebraska and one located exclusively at Beatrice.

Personnal from the University and the state department will add these chapters to the three already being served by the University.

Accountants Cautioned

Port au Prince, Haiti (AP) — President Francois Duvalier has told government employes — particularly accountants — to stay out of gaming rooms of an international casino operated here by a Las Vegas group headed by Cliff Jones, former lieutenant governor of Nevada.

JURISDICTION IS QUESTIONED

The attorney general maintained in a brief filed in Supreme Court that the Sheridan County District Court did not have jurisdiction in a case in which the court ordered a driver's license reinstated.

Philip G. Burress had appealed to district court an order from Motor Vehicles Director Alvin Scissors canceling the motor vehicle operator's license after Burress failed to pass a re-examination.

The district court directed the issuance of a new and renewal license.

The attorney general said in his brief that the trial court erred in assuming jurisdiction of the action.

The brief said the supreme court should find that the proceeding before the district court was void because of want of jurisdiction or that the order overruling the state's motion to vacate the judgment should be reversed.

Laws Might Up Required School Age

...Decker Tells PTA

Dr. Freeman Decker, state commissioner of education, told the Nebraska Congress of Parents and Teachers that the state is "about ready" for legislation raising the compulsory school attendance age from 16 to 18, provided the student is mentally capable.

Some 24 district directors, presidents of PTA city councils, and their legislative chairmen, and members of the state legislative committee of the PTA, attended the all-day annual legislative workshop held in Lincoln.

Mrs. George E. Robertson of Omaha, state president, and Mrs. E. J. Roberts of Omaha, state legislative chairman, were in charge of the meeting.

Other speakers included Clarence Meyer, deputy attorney general and State Sen. Otto Liebers.

Stanley Good, state chairman of juvenile protection for the PTA, reported on the White House conference, and Miss Esther Miller, Brown County Schools Superintendent from Ainsworth, described the work of the county superintendent's office.

Chamber Managers Select J. Preston

Omaha — James Preston, manager of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce, was elected president of the Nebraska Chamber of Commerce Managers at the group's annual meeting in Omaha.

Don Hileman of Hastings was chosen as vice president and M. J. Graham of Alliance, secretary-treasurer.

Lincoln VA Hospital Eyes $2.3 Million Modernization Program

An estimated $2,376,000 modernization program at Lincoln Veterans Hospital will get underway within the next two years if the Veterans Administration budget is approved.

The announcement was made Wednesday along with details of a plan to spend $75 million annually in a 12-year program to modernize VA hospitals across the nation.

A total of $3,787,000 is proposed for planning 18 major projects, including the one at Lincoln. Usually planning money is asked a year or two before construction funds are sought.

According to Dr. J. Melvin Boykin, Lincoln VA Hospital manager, the modernization program at Lincoln will include:

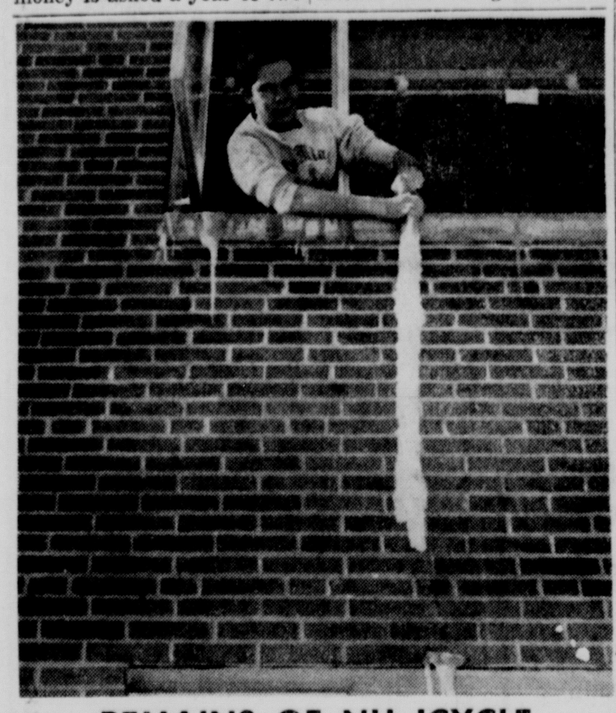
—interior renovation of the main structure and of a second building located south of the central unit; an addition of a wing to the second building providing space for library, lounge and recreational facilities and clinical offices.

—modernization of the building which houses the kitchen and dining area, and remodeling of the building which includes the auditorium and recreational facilities.

Dr. Boykin said the proposed funds would also provide for construction of a new chapel in the inner court of the hospital center.

Regarding the long-range modernization program, Dr. Boykin noted that new elevators are needed at the hospital as well as some new equipment and furnishings.

If the entire sum is appropriated, funds would be available after July, 1961.



REMAINS OF NU ICYCLE

Liquor Board Eyes Possible License Stops

The Nebraska Liquor Control Commission Wednesday set 3 hearings for Feb. 29 on possible suspension or revocation of retail licenses.

S. Dee Bentley of Omaha, package liquor licensee, was cited by the commission for selling beer to a minor and conducting his premises in such a way as to create public censure.

Helen Agnes Oster of Omaha, Class C liquor license, was cited for allowing gambling on the licensed premises and offering one gallon of liquor as a prize.

The Alumni Club, Inc., of South Sioux City, beer license, on and off sale outside the corporate limits, was cited for selling liquor between the hours of 1 a.m. Sunday and 6 a.m. Sunday, and selling liquor without first having obtained a license to do so.

Dec. Traffic In '59 Equals Year Ago Toll

Traffic over counters on rural roads in 15 locations averaged out about the same in December as the same month in 1958, the Nebraska Department of Roads reported.

The largest increase noted was 22% on Nebraska 9 north of West Point, which has been resurfaced with an oil mat since December, 1958.

The largest decrease was 32% on U.S. 6 north of Gretna. The report said this was because local traffic has been attracted to a newly opened section of the interstate highway.

The stations, with average 24-hour volumes for December, 1959, and per cent change since December, 1958:

U.S. 26 east of Scottsbluff, 2,500 (estimated), no change.
U.S. 30 west of Elm Creek, 2,794, up 3%.
Nebraska 4 west of Davenport, 276, down 12%.
U.S. 77 & 275 north of Fremont, 4,207, down 2%.
U.S. 6 north of Gretna, 2,424, down 32%.
U.S. 73 & 75 south of Union, 2,910, down 3%.
U.S. 20 west of South Sioux City, 2,097, down 2%.
U.S. 20 east of Chadron, 881, down 12%.
Nebraska 2 & 92 west of Broken Bow, 1,220, up 10%.
U.S. 6 & 34 west of Arapahoe, 1,455, down 1%.
County road east of Stromsburg, 142, down 3%.
Nebraska 9 north of West Point, 329, up 22%.
County road east of Pickrell, 147, up 8%.
Nebraska 7 south of Ainsworth, 439, up 4%.
County road north of Chappell, 165, down 9%.

The department also reported that during November, 1959, 38,620,201 gallons of motor fuel were imported into the state on which taxes were paid. This was an increase of 8% over the gallons taxed during the same month in 1958.

During the first 11 months of 1959, the gallons taxed increased 6% over the same period in 1958.

George Syas Files For Unicam Again; Makes 6 In Row

George D. Syas of Omaha filed as a candidate for the Legislature, seeking his 6th consecutive term from the 4th District.

Syas, 48, has been a machinist with the Union Pacific Railroad for the past 24 years.

Three filings for delegates or alternates to national political conventions also were received in the Secretary of State's office.

Mrs. Essie E. Davis of Hyannis filed as an alternate delegate at large to the Democratic national convention.

Robert G. Simmons Jr. of Scottsluff filed as a delegate to the Republican national convention from the 4th Congressional District.

Jay L. Dunlap of Milford filed as a delegate to the Republican national convention from the 3rd Congressional District.

Judge John E. Newton of Ponca filed as a candidate for re-election to the bench in the 8th Judicial District.

The district is composed of Cedar, Dakota, Dixon and Thurston counties.

Life Underwriters Warned To Guard Against Inflation

William S. Hendley Jr. of Columbia, S.C., reviewed the major challenges and opportunities facing the life insurance business at the Lincoln Assn. of Life Underwriters meeting.

Hendley, president of the National Assn. of Life Underwriters, warned of the dangers of inflation and of imprudent national financial housekeeping to the economy.

He stressed the danger of encroachment of the federal government on local and state institutions, and asserted that a rebirth of individual — as well as state and local government — initiative is long overdue.

N.Y. Butterfly Dealer Gets Samples, Thank-You Note From Nikita's Son

By Francis Stilley

New York (AP) — A new cultural exchange between the United States and Russia has wafted in on butterfly wings.

Behind the enterprise is Sergei Khrushchev, 24-year-old son of the Soviet premier. He is an electrical engineer by profession but collects butterfly specimens as a hobby.

The hospitality of a Brooklyn lepidopterist, Aminadov Glanz, inspired young Khrushchev to launch the project which in time may enable American scientists and collectors to obtain rare Russian butterfly species never before available here.

Glanz and his son, Elliott, operate Butterfly Art Jewelry Inc. They term their firm the world's largest dealer in butterfly specimens, collectors' equipment, school study materials and jewelry fashioned from butterfly wings.

When young Khrushchev visited the United States with his father late last year, he spent half a day inspecting Glanz' extensive establishment and collection.

As he was departing, Glanz presented Khrushchev with about 100 choice specimens. Khrushchev wanted to pay for them but Glanz refused. Glanz later declined to estimate their value but said one rare 10-inch moth from Madagascar was worth about $25 on the retail market.

Khruschev, obviously pleased, said he would return the favor when he got home.

Wednesday a Russian representative presented Glanz with a shipment of about 50 butterflies, a further gift of a Russian-made jewel box and a letter which said in part:

"I retained the very best recollection of our visit to your city and I would like once again to express my appreciation for the wonderful varieties of butterflies presented to me. I often recall meeting with you and your collection . . .

"In the future I hope to send you a few more far eastern butterflies among which there are some rare species. I trust we will maintain regular exchanges and will help . . . in developing cultural ties between our countries."

Glanz said he would quickly communicate his pleasure to Khruschev and accept his offer of further exchanges. And he added of the premier's son:

"He seemed to be a very nice young man. He knows his butterflies, too."

Interstate Priority Start Pondered By Frank Morrison

Atty. Frank Morrison — a Democratic candidate for governor—said Wednesday he would like to know who establishes priorities for the Interstate Highway program.

He said at a Lincoln Chamber of Commerce meeting former Gov. Victor Anderson "disclaimed any prior knowledge or responsibility for the top priorities assigned to the route."

Morrison said Governor Brooks was quoted as saying the matter of location of the Interstate was decided long before he became governor.

Morrison said the person who made the priority decision should identify himself and explain how the decision was reached.

Road Plan Little Effect On Douglas

The proposal to give each county a minimum of $15,000 in federal secondary road money a year would make "very little difference" to Douglas County, John Hossack, acting engineer, said Wednesday.

Douglas County Surveyor Bill Green earlier had protested the proposed policy as one which would hamper Douglas County at the benefit of smaller counties.

Another danger, Green said, would be the imposition of controls to lessen the overdrawing of federal fund accounts. He contended Douglas County lost about $450,000 to other counties in 1955-57 re-allocations, and said this shifting should work two ways.

The $15,000 feature was included in a proposed policy released last week by the Governor's office. The proposal is to be presented Monday to the State Highway Advisory Commission.

Under the proposal, all counties, effective fiscal 1962, would be given a minimum of $15,000, which is more than 18 of them now receive. Larger counties, of course, would receive larger proportional shares on top of the $15,000.

Knight Hosts Wesleyan U Top Citizens

George A. Knight, president of the Citizens State Bank of Lincoln, will host a luncheon meeting honoring recipients of Nebraska Wesleyan University Distinguished Citizen Awards at the University Club Friday noon.

In addition to Mrs. Lorena B. Hahn of Omaha and Dr. Frank A. Court of Lincoln who will receive the awards, guests will include other members of the Wesleyan Founders Day convocation platform party, key members of the administrative staff, close friends and relatives of the award recipients and about 75 Lincoln business and civic leaders.

William H. Burkhart, chairman of the board of Lever Brothers Company of New York City who will earlier address the convocation audience will speak a second time at the luncheon.

65, GARLAND ONE-FAMILY ZONE EYED

The City of Lincoln is moving to reestore single-family zoning of the northwest corner of 65th and Garland.

Commercial zoning of the 3 lots was secured in 1958 by the Bethany Plumbing and Heating Co. The City Council split 4-3 in approving the controversial change opposed by residents.

Public hearing is set for Jan. 27 before the City-County Planning Commission on the city's application. The commission had recommended against commercial zoning in 1958.

Councilman Dell Tyrrell, one of 4 councilman approving the commercial change, requested that action to restore the residential zoning be initiated.

Bethany Plumbing had proposed to expand the 3 lots, but Tyrrell indicated the company has abandoned such plans.

The city attorney has said the re-zoning move would be legal in view of the fact that no construction has been started on the site since the 1958 zoning change.

Behrends County Heart Chairman

William Behrends has been appointed Lancaster County Chairman of the Nebraska Heart Assn., by Mrs. Martha W. Hardin of Lincoln, state chairman.

The annual Heart Fund campaign will get underway Feb. 1 and will reach its climax Heart Sunday, Feb. 28, when some 20,000 volunteers will call on neighbors in door-to-door collections.

Dr. George Young Named Northeast 'Y' Board Chief

Dr. George A. Young, chairman of the University of Nebraska's veterinary science department, is the new president of the board of management of the Northeast branch of the Young Men's Christian Assn.

Dr. Young

Other officers include: Bob Holbert, vice president; Ken McCartney, treasurer, and Bill Bowmaster, secretary.

Dr. Ralph Ebers, Ed Pavelka, the Rev. Carl Burkhardt Jr. and Larry C. Price are board members.

NEWMAN CLUB NAMES HENRY AS PRESIDENT

Patrick Henry of Omaha is president of Newman Club, Catholic student organization at the University of Nebraska. Mary Stastny of Lincoln is vice president.

Other officers include Dorothy Sedlak of Clarkson, recording secretary; Paul Herman of Wilber, treasurer; Patricia Ostdiek of Lawrence, corresponding secretary and Colleen Woulf of Lincoln alumni secretary.

Stops Constipation Due to "Aging Colon"

New laxative discovery re-creates 3 essentials for normal regularity.

As you grow older, the internal muscles of your colon wall also age, lose the strength that propels waste from the body. Stagnant bowel contents become so dry and shrunken that they fail to stimulate the urge to purge.

Relief, doctors say, lies in a new laxative principle. Old-style bulks and moisteners may create gas, take 3 or 4 days for relief. Old-style salts and drugs cramp and gripe the entire system. Of all laxatives, only new Colonaid gives you its special 3-way relief that works only on the lower colon (area of constipation).

(1) Colonaid moisturizes dry, hardened waste for easy passage without pain or strain. (2) Colonaid's unequalled rebulking action helps retone flabby colon muscles. (3) And Colonaid acts gently, on the nerve reflexes that stimulate the vital "mass movement" of your lower colon.

Colonaid relieves even chronic constipation overnight; is so gentle it was hospital proved safe even for expectant mothers. And Colonaid won't interfere with absorption of vitamins or other food nutrients. Get Colonaid today! Introductory size 43¢.

$2 Billion Cut Sought In President's Budget

Washington (UPI) — Chairman Clarence Cannon (D-Mo.) of the House Appropriations Committee called Wednesday for a cut of at last $2, billion in President Eisenhower's new appropriations requests.

Rep. John Taber (R-NY), top GOP member and former chairman of the appropriations group, agreed with Cannon that substantial reductions could be made in the President's spending plans for the fiscal year starting July 1.

Cannon and Taber also agreed on where a start should be made. They said the President's $79,800,000,000 budget calls for 42,000 new federal jobs on top of the 2,364,000 civilian employes already on the government's $12 billion-a-year payroll.

Cannon thought no new employes were needed. Taber said 40,000 of the proposed new jobs, scattered through all non-defense agencies of the government, could be eliminated at a saving of about $160 million.

Cannon also saw little chance of winding up the next fiscal year with the $4,200,000,000 surplus forecast by the President in his Monday budget message. Cannon said the projected surplus might even turn into a deficit.

The Congressman noted that Eisenhower called for bigger spending next year. Cannon said the President also made clear that a surplus depends heavily on a soaring national income.

Cannon, whose committee already is looking for budget savings, said the group was going to cut it by "at least by a couple of billion dollars."

Taber said he had not studied the budget closely enough to set a hard target for savings. But he said it could be trimmed by not less than a couple billion.

The economy forecast of the two House leaders clashed with demands by some groups for an increase in the President's request in such "welfare fields" as housing, schools and hospital construction.

Cannon and Taber conceded that economy reductions imposed by Congress do not always show up in equivalent spending cuts because some of the money involved is earmarked for future years.

Sometimes the effect is delayed and sometimes it is cancelled by later actions of Congress. Only about two thirds of the total spending planned by Eisenhower comes before Congress anyway. For the rest, he already has the money in hand for previous appropriations.

Chick Output Drops 7 Pct.

Commercial hatcheries in Nebraska produced 115,000 chicks in December, an estimated 7% below the same period in 1958 and 27% below the 5-year average hatch.

The State-Federal Division of Agricultural Statistics said the decrease was caused by a substantial reduction in egg-type chicks hatched. This more than offset an increase in broiler-type chicks produced.

The estimated accumulated hatch, January-December 1959, is up very slightly from the year 1958 at 21,479,000 chicks.

Broiler-type chicks hatched in December totaled 95,000, compared with 77,000 for December, 1958. The year's production at 1,472,000 was down 5% from 1958.

Egg-type hatchings for December totaled 20,000 chicks compared with 47,000 hatched the same month in 1958. The year's hatch of 20,007,000 is 1% over 1958.

Cheyenne County Deposits Decline

Sidney (AP) — Deposits in the 5 Cheyenne County banks are lower than they were a year ago, but above the $15 million mark.

Deposits were down about $300,000. Loans were up about $30,000 to $5.6 million. Sidney Federal Savings and Loan Assn. showed a slight gain in savings accounts, going from $2 million to $2,163,280.

Deposits in the 5 banks were $15,390,392 a year ago and now stand at $15,066,391.

Winter Bride-Elect Honoree

Miss Julia Sampson and Miss Kay Rendell were hostesses on Wednesday at a dessert supper horning Miss Bonnie Rediger. Fifteen guests were invited for the affair, and during the evening a linen shower was presented to the bride-elect.

Pictured at the shower are, left to right on the floor, Miss Dianne Young and Miss Sampson. In back, from left to right, are Miss Betty Jean Myers, Miss Margaret Borner, Miss Cynthia Kay Batterman, Miss Jeanne Sinnen, Miss Rendell, Mrs. Ray Rediger, Miss Rediger, Miss Judy Warner, Mrs. Larry Hanneman, Mrs. Marion Rezny and Mrs. John Sutorka.

Miss Rediger has chosen Sunday, Feb. 7, as the date for her marriage to Jerry Amen.

Town and Country

—We have a choice this morning—we can begin the day's work with news of home—or abroad. Since our contribution from Europe takes but a bit of space, we'll start with that. After reading the story about the plane disaster in Turkey, we began checking on Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams who, as you know, are abroad. We learned that the latest word from Mr. and Mrs. Williams came from Sicily where they were having a wonderful time. Maybe you knew, but we didn't until now, that Mrs. Roma Donald of Grand Island, accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Williams on their trans-Atlantic flight and was with them in Rome for two weeks before returning home.

* * *

—At home, literally and figuratively, we have Mr. and Mrs. W. Irl Stebbins—Mr. and Mrs. Stebbins returned on Monday from a three weeks holiday which took them to Florida, Nassau — and around and about.

* * *

—Understand that Mr. and Mrs. Sayre have some future plans which involve giving their friends a view of their reconstructed home — The Sayre house, you may recall, was severely damaged by fire.

—The fact that the space age and the 'teen-age' are somewhat synonymous in these ultra-modern times no doubt prompted the theme for Faculty Dancing Club party to be held on Saturday evening in the American Room at the Student Union when the teen-age sons and daughters of the members will be guests.

Serving on the party arrangements committee are Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Johnson, chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. John Weihing, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Berck and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Brown.

The guest list will include Dr. and Mrs. Andy Swiger, Mr. and Mrs. Garth James, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace LaBerge, Mr. and Mrs. Sabri Sungu, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Swartz, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simpson, Miss Janet Sterner, Louis Becker, Miss Lorna Webster, Scott Henderson, Miss Sylvia Legault and John Liska.

Lincoln BSP Guest

A guest in Lincoln is Walter W. Ross, III, of Kansas City, president of Beta Sigma Phi International, a cultural and social sorority for women, who is pictured with Miss Thelma Hecht, president of the Lincoln city council of the organization.

Mr. Ross addressed the members of the 11 Lincoln chapters at a meeting on Wednesday evening. Son of the founder of Beta Sigma Phi, he directs the activities of the 123,000-member organization.

Betrothal Revealed

MISS JANIE PHILPOT

The betrothal of Miss Janie Philpot, daughter of Mrs. Sam Philpot of Lincoln, formerly of Falls City, and and the late Mr. Philpot, to Thomas L. Gartner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig B. Gartner, is being announced this morning by the bride-elect's mother.

Plans are being made for a February wedding.

Miss Philpot is a graduate of the University of Kansas City School of Dental Hygiene. Her fiance attends the University of Nebraska.

Fifty-Niners Plan Party

The members of the Fifty-Niners Dancing Club have a festive event planned for Saturday evening, Feb. 6, at Hotel Lincoln. The affair will be a Valentine's Day dinner dance, and the ballroom decor and the table appointments will introduce the motif.

Arrangements for the party are in the hands of a committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. John Burnham, chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Lilley, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Olson.

Women's Groups Plan Meetings

The awards night program of the Lincoln Air Force Base FAMILY SERVICES will be held at 8 o'clock Thursday evening in the briefing room of the 307th air refueling squadron.

Husbands of the volunteers will be guests, and refreshments will be served at the close of the program.

Meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs.. Edgar Wescott, 3425 So. 37th, will be the members of Chapter FF, PEO. The program will begin at 8 o'clock, and assisting hostess will be Mrs. G. B. Childs.

A new series of classes for children and adults has been planned by the HAVELOCK YWCA to begin the week of Jan. 25. Registration may be made by contacting the YW through Friday, Jan. 22.

Scheduled for children is a tap dancing class at 4 o'clock on Tuesdays; a crafts class from 3:45 o'clock to 4:45 o'clock, Wednesdays; and a drama class meeting at 9:15 o'clock Saturday mornings.

Social dancing for teenagers of junior high school age will be held from 3:45 o'clock to 4:45 o'clock on Thursdays.

For adults, a class in bridge, supervised play, will be held Thursday mornings at 9:15 o'clock, and a sewing class has been planned for 9:30 o'clock Friday mornings. Lessons in foreign cooking will be offered at 9:30 o'clock Tuesday mornings, and the popular slym gym class will be held at 8 o'clock Wednesday evenings.

A definite time will be set later for the meeting of Y-Singers.

Mrs. William Hervert will be hostess to the members of the LINCOLN AAUW play-reading group at her home, 3148 Puritan, on Friday. The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Meeting for a 1 o'clock luncheon Friday will be the members of Chapter CS, PEO, who will be the guests of Mrs. Wyman B. Kenagy, 2734 Rathbone Rd.

Square dancing on Friday evening will be the members of the KALICO KLICKERS Club who will meet at 8 o'clock in the B, PW club rooms, 130 So. 11th. All who are interested are welcome to attend.

The members of the BUSY BELLES Extension Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Carrol Ketelhut.

Mrs. Creighton Cyr presented the lesson on, "Fabric Selections," and the members discussed plans for participating in the March of Dimes drive.

The next meeting will be held Feb. 11 at the home of Mrs. Donald Schultz.

The members of THE QUILL met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. P. C. Swift.

An article, "Why Can't Johnny Use Good English," was read by Miss Mary Jeffrey, and Mrs. Swift read, "A Thesis by the Typist." The program also included, "The Rabbit Who Liked Noise," by Mrs. Franz Radke.

The bidding:

West	North	East	South
1 NT	Pass	2 ♥	2 ♠

Opening lead—king of diamonds.

Point count can be of valuable service not only in the bidding but also in the play of the cards. Here is a hand where declarer took advantage of the bidding to make his contract of two spades.

West led the king of diamonds, East signaling with the eight. West continued with the ace and another diamond. East won and returned a heart. West took the ace and led back a heart to declarer's king.

South had already lost four tricks and had to avoid the loss of two clubs to make the contract. The normal way to deal with the club situation would be to lead a low club towards dummy's king and finesse the ten of clubs on the return.

This line of play would succeed if it turned out that East had the jack. Declarer would then make two club tricks and the contract.

But South knew this line of play could scarcely work, since West was marked by the bidding with both the ace and jack of clubs.

West had bid a notrump and shown up with the A-K of diamonds and ace of hearts—11 points. The only missing high cards by this time were the A-J of clubs, both of which West had to have to constitute a standard 16 to 18 point opening bid of one notrump.

Since the normal method of playing the clubs was therefore marked to fail, South turned to a different means of play to accomplish his purpose.

After drawing three rounds of trumps, ending in his own hand, South led the queen of clubs. West had to take the ace because, if he ducked, declarer would automatically lose only one club trick by leading another club towards the king.

But having taken the ace, West was left with no safe means of exit. If he returned a heart or a diamond, South would obtain a ruff and discard. When West returned a low club instead, declarer let it run to his ten and made the contract.

Newcomers

Now settled at 3125 North 68th Street are Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Baker. The Bakers came to Lincoln from Milford. They have two sons, Richard who is a coach at Plainview, and Robert who makes his home in Alameda, Calif. Rev. Baker is the district superintendent of the United Missionary Church of the Nebraska Conference.

The former occupants of the home are the Rev. James Hoskins family who now live at 2912 North 44th Street.

KITCHEN PIN-UP

Hearty main-dish salads are marvelous for buffet suppers, or when it's your turn to entertain "the girls." Make them ahead, and make them hearty—the first for your convenience and the last for the satisfaction of your guests.

LOBSTER MACARONI MOLD WITH DRESSING

- 2 cups diced cooked lobster (about 4 rock lobster tails)
- 1 cup creamed cottage cheese
- 1 cup diced cucumber
- ½ cup grated radishes
- ¾ cup mayonnaise
- 2 tablespoons French dressing
- 1 teaspoon aromatic bitters
- 2 3-ounce packages lime-flavored gelatin
- 2 cups hot water
- 1⅓ cups cold water
- ¼ cup vinegar
- 1 tablespoon grated lemon rind
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon aromatic bitters
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 3 quarts boiling water
- 2 cups elbow macaroni (8 ounces)

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add cold water, vinegar, lemon rind, lemon juice, 1 teaspoon bitters and ½ teaspoon salt. Blend and chill until slightly thickened.

Add 1 tablespoon salt to rapidly boiling water. Gradually add macaroni so that water continues to boil. Cook uncovered, stirring occasionally, until tender. Drain in colander. Rinse with cold water. Drain.

Add macaroni, lobster, cottage cheese, cucumber and radishes to gelatin mixture; mix well. Turn into 2½ quart mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Garnish with watercress, lemon wedges and olives, as desired. Blend remaining ingredients and serve with salad. Serves 6.

Settled In New Homes

Now settled in a new home at 6711 Adams are the Robert H. Greb family. The family includes Bobbette, 1½, and Susan, 5½, who is attending classes at Pershing Elementary School. Mr. Greb is associated with the Telephone company.

Also departing from Cotner Terrace were Mr. and Mrs. Donald K. Erickson and their three children, Gary, 8, Steven, 6, and David, 2. Their home at 3135 North Cotner is vacant as they became acquainted with their new home at 316 Prestwich Road.

Newcomers to the suburb and Lincoln are the Joseph G. Dudek family who moved here from Raymond. Their family included a daughter, Janice, 10, who attends Pershing School; another daughter at home, Dorothy, who is working; and a married daughter, Mrs. Stanley Trouba, who also lives in Lincoln. Mr. Dudek is an employee of the Lincoln public schools. The Dudeks are at home at 3501 North 68th Street, the former home of the Robert Morins who now live at 3135 North 61st Street.

Dear Abby--

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a 14-year-old boy with a big problem. I can't talk to my Dad because he is my problem.

I am pretty good at sports and made the baseball team last spring, and this year I made the football team at school. All the other boys have their Dads come to watch them play. My Dad has never once seen me play. He has the kind of job that takes him out of town better than half the time. He says he is working for his family but, Abby, we would rather have him home and making less money than have him gone so much.

How can I make him understand that I would just as soon have one pair of shoes and a second-hand suit if only he would stay home and be a Dad like other boys' Dads?

FATHERLESS

DEAR FATHERLESS: Dads aren't mind-readers. Tell him how you feel. Dads who travel for a living are frequently able to arrange their schedules so that they can be at home for "special events". Perhaps if you talked this over with your mother she could help you convince your Dad that his "presence" at home NOW is more important than his "presents" later.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I have a brother-in-law who is so ignorant it isn't even funny. He signed all their Christmas cards, "JOE AND MARGARET". Shouldn't the lady's name always come first?

CURIOUS

DEAR CURIOUS: Not necessarily. It is correct to address letters "MR. AND MRS. BLANK". So why not sign a card, "JOE AND MARGARET"?

DEAR ABBY: There should be eleven Commandments. The eleventh being: "No man shalt take his wife to live next to his mother." I always thought talk about mothers-in-law was a lot of foolishness, but I learned better after living next door to mine for a year.

She is very nosy and tries to find out things that don't concern her (from my husband) when I'm not around. She carries tales from one daughter-in-law to another and when she has us all fighting she says what a pity it is that we can't get along. She has said things about others in the family while I kept my lip buttoned and then she said I said these things. Do I have a right to tell my husband that either WE move or I move without him?

FED UP

DEAR FED: You have. With a mother-in-law like yours, "distance lends enchantment".

NEWS OF SUBURBIA

EASTBOROUGH

Heard from Mrs. Dean Hutchins that the 71 Club, the young couples' group from St. Paul Methodist Church, will spend an evening at the theatre this Friday evening when 22 of the club's membership will attend the Lincoln Community Playhouse production of "Kind Sir".

Now to do a bit of much needed catching up on some new residents in the suburb.

Making their home at 316 Prestwich Rd. are Mr. and Mrs. Donald K. Erickson. They settled in the suburb in December and have been Lincoln residents only since September when they moved here from Denver. That's not to say that the Ericksons are strangers to Nebraska however for Mrs. Erickson is originally from Pierce, and Mr. Erickson is from Central City. Mr. Erickson is associated with Frontier Airlines.

Newcomers to Lincoln and Eastborough as of the middle of December are Lt. and Mrs. Robert P. McCoy who are residing at 7130 Eastborough Lane. Lt. McCoy was formerly stationed at Amarillo Air Force Base, Amarillo, Tex.

Arriving in Lincoln two weeks ago from Canoga Park, Calif., were Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Monson and their children, Susan, Diane, Edward, Kathleen and Donald. The Monson family spent five years in Canoga Park where Mr. Monson, who is an electrical engineer, was with the Atomic Power plant. He is presently working with the Hallam project.

The address for the Monson home is 6834 Joyce.

Understand that Mrs. Lee'o Dean Miller (the former Brenda Ligon) who has been staying at the home of her mother, Mrs. David Withrow, will be leaving Lincoln for Indianapolis, Ind., the latter part of January. She will join her husband who is stationed at Ft. Benjamin Harrison.

NU Protests Timing Mixup In CU Loss

. . . BIG 8 INVESTIGATION IS ASKED

By Don Bryant

Nebraska's protest of the timing discrepancies in the loss to Colorado last week probably won't change the Cornhusker basketball team's record.

But it may cost the Buffalo timekeeper his job — or, at least, clear the air.

NU Athletic Director Bill Orwig said Wednesday, "We are going to make an official protest to both the Big 8 Conference and Colorado.

"We feel something should be done about the timing situation at Colorado in another year. This is the second time in two years that a timing situation has cost us the ball game at Boulder. We just feel it is something that should be investigated."

Late Shot Ties

Nebraska lost the contest, 62-57, in overtime, after leading the Buffs, 57-55, with 5 seconds showing on the clock. A Colorado shot that whipped through the nets as the gun sounded netted the tie.

Nebraska Coach Jerry Bush complained that the clock did not start when it should have, following a missed NU free throw, and that the Buffs had more than 5 seconds in which to get the tie.

This has been substantiated by both the Denver Post and the Rocky Mountain News following interviews with Charles Bitter, who keeps the CU official clock on the sidelines.

Admits Juggling

Bitter admitted juggling the time because of an earlier "error" which took 2 seconds away from Colorado, and said "there were really 7 seconds, not 5."

Reaves Peters, executive director of the Big 8 Conference, told The Star by phone Wednesday afternoon that "there is no precedence for this kind of thing, but the best way to air the matter is by submitting a protest."

"This is a new thing," Peters said. "The timekeeper was definitely wrong. He did something he can't do. This may turn out to be one of those things that defies solution, but it should be looked into."

Peters said the matter probably would be taken up by the conference athletic directors during their next session, Feb. 25-26-27.

Possible Solutions

Action might include (1) awarding Nebraska the victory; (2) Colorado voluntarily forfeiting the win; (3) ordering a replay of the game from the time of the last foul—highly unlikely—and (4) censuring Colorado and ordering the school to either straighten out its timekeeper or secure a new one.

Best guess is that the Big 8 dons will vote for No. 4.

Bitter Admits Holding Clock

. . . REPORTS DENVER PAPER

The Denver Rocky Mountain News Monday carried a story, which quoted Colorado Timekeeper Charles Bitter on his part in the controversial CU-Nebraska basketball game last Saturday.

Here's part of the story:

". . . It did take the Buffs more than 5 seconds to roar down the court and swish the tying basket as the gun sounded ending the regulation game.

"It took SEVEN.

"Or if you want to get technical, perhaps 6 seconds and ninety-nine one-hundredths of another.

"Charles Bitter, who keeps the official time on the bench at each CU home game, admitted the Buffs used the two extra seconds which permitted them to tie the score.

"The big scoreboard clock in the center of the court showed only 5 seconds remaining when Jim Kowalke of Nebraska missed a free throw with his team ahead 57-55.

"However, according to Bitter, the official stop watch which he is in charge of, showed there actually was 7 seconds to go.

"It all happened this way!

"Asa Berkheimer, who runs the scoreboard clock, had allowed the clock to run an additional two seconds after the officials had whistled CU's Don Butler for a foul against Kowalke.

" 'So there really was 7 seconds left, not 5' Bitter said. 'I instructed Berkheimer to wait two seconds before starting the clock when time was resumed.

" 'We (Berkheimer and Bitter) were right together going into the final 30 seconds, but got fouled up on the foul infraction. The referee's signal to stop the clock was poorly given on the fou' and that was the reason for the mixup.'

"It is the official timer's duty to inform the officials in case of a discrepency between himself and the scoreboard clock after which the two officials must inform the two coaches . . ."

Bowling Meet Set For Grand Island

Grand Island (AP) — The Nebraska state championship bowling tournament will be held here over 4 weekends in March.

Defending champions are Nye Furniture of Ogallala in the team division, Sebby Pulverente and Pat Payne of Omaha in doubles, Tom Swedlund of Hastings in singles and Ray McCarthy, North Platte, all events.

Johnson Gambled

That was quite a gamble Lincoln High's new cage coach, Alden Johnson, took when he benched Sam Zollicoffer against Northeast last week.

He'll never know just how big the gamble was. The criticism that might have been forthcoming went out the window when LHS won without Sam. Had Lincoln's winning streak departed, instead, Johnson might have been placed under fire.

Zollicoffer

On the surface, it might not seem right to penalize Sam for becoming the father of twins. When he missed 4 days of practice, Johnson did not question his right to spend the time with his family.

But at the same time, the rest of the squad was working hard those 4 days for the game with Northeast. Even though Sam had a good reason for absence, Johnson felt it would have been unfair to the team if his absence went unnoticed. I think it's well for a new coach to take a firm stand on his rules early in his career.

Lincoln should always be a better team with Zollicoffer in action. His experience and ability makes him LHS' best all-round performer.

But winning without Sam should give his mates more confidence, perhaps preparing them for another time when Sam might be out of a game due to injury, or too many fouls.

Pleasant Surprise

While on the subject, there is more to be said concerning Zollicoffer's play this year. I was not the only one who had serious misgivings as to what he would do.

The past two seasons, Sam was what is known as a "gunner." He fired the ball at the board with regularity, often barely stepping across the centerline before shooting. For two reasons, this practice of Sam's was acceptable.

First, if his eye was "on," Zollicoffer would hit a fair percentage, and his scoring would justify his frequent shooting.

Secondly, when Sam missed, there were several big Links on the team to pull in the rebound, often scoring on a tip. One of Zollicoffer's missed shots usually was better than passes into a post man on most teams.

So it was tough to criticize Zollicoffer for his frequent "gunning." But dire things were forecast for this year, if Sam kept up the practice, without the big boys to pull in the rebounds.

Zollicoffer has allayed these fears with fine team play. He has worked hard to play with his teammates, rather than for himself. Playing under a new coach, with a completely different style of play than that taught by Lyle Weyand, has undoubtedly been a tough adjustment for Zollicoffer. He has made the adjustment.

True, he still "guns" occasionally. It's a difficult habit to break. For the most part, he's been a team player, and is still playing an important role in that Lincoln winning skein.

NFL OWNERS REACH VOTING STALEMATE

Skowron . . . hopes swimming brings good year.

Water-Scared Skowron Takes Up Swimming To Help Back Muscles

New York (AP)—Bill (Moose) Skowron, who must be just about the most brittle player in the major leagues, thinks he has discovered a way to keep the old man injury at least at arm's length.

"At the recommendation of doctors," the slugging New York Yankee first baseman said Wednesday, "I've begun to take swimming lessons. Swimming is supposed to loosen the back muscles so they won't rip or tear so easily. I started this winter and my back feels as good as new."

Skowron was holding court in the Yankees' plush offices after becoming the first Yankee to sign for 1960. His salary is reported $24,000, a raise of $1,000 over his 1959 earnings.

Big Bill stands 6-1 and weighs 203 pounds. He is not called "The Moose" for nothing. Yet hardly a year goes by when the former Purdue fullback doesn't fall victim to injury. In 6 years with the Yankees, he has yet to play a full season.

"What makes it even worse," Skowron said, "is that these injuries come at the worst possible times. Whenever I'm going real good, something happens. Last year I was hitting .450 when I sprained my back going after a ground ball.

"And another thing. Other guys when they get hurt, they're out a couple of days, maybe a couple of weeks at the longest. Not me. When I get hurt I'm out a minimum of 4 weeks.

Then when I come back, I usually go bad. That's because I start pressing, trying to make up for lost time."

Doctors told Skowron his muscles, particularly in his back, were too taut. Unlike most other persons, when The Moose applies undo pressure on his muscles, they don't stretch — they tear.

"That's because I never took up swimming as a kid," Skowron explained. "When I was 12, I went into the water to see how deep it was. I almost didn't come up. My buddies jumped in and saved me from drowning. Since then I've had a fear of the water."

Wynn Inks Record Pact; Hopes For 20-Win Year

Chicago (AP) — Veteran pitcher Early Wynn, presently reclining in a hospital bed during a physical checkup, Wednesday signed a record Chicago White Sox contract for an estimated $45,000.

The 40-year-old, the majors' top winner last season with a 22-10 record, received a "rather handsome increase," Sox Owner Bill Veeck announced.

Wynn reportedly received near $40,000 last season when he led the White Sox to their first American League pennant in 40 years.

Sox officials said Wynn's 1960 salary makes him the highest paid pitcher in Sox history.

Wynn came to terms as Veeck visited him at Mercy Hospital, where the husky righthander is undergoing a routine physical checkup. Wynn is expected to be released from the hospital today.

Wynn, who won the Cy Young award as 1959's outstanding pitcher, predicted another 20-game winning season this year.

"Any pitcher who settles for less than that isn't shooting very high," said Early, who turned 40 Jan. 6.

Wynn was also presented the William Wrigley Jr. award for the comeback of the year by the Chicago Baseball Writers chapter.

Last season he was the American League's sole 20-game winner, and his 5 shutouts were second best in the league. He composed a 6-1 mark against his former club, the Cleveland Indians, the chief threat to the White Sox' pennant bid.

For the 12th straight campaign, Wynn last year struck out more than 100 men—finishing with 179—and had a 3.18 ERA. His 19-year major league record includes 271 victories, 14th best in major league history.

Wynn was the 8th White Sox player signed for 1960.

—If Financial, Stadium Arrangements OK—

BUFFALO SET FOR CONTINENTAL

Buffalo, N.Y. (AP) — Continental League president Branch Rickey Wednesday said Buffalo will become the league's 8th club if pending financial and stadium arrangements are approved.

Rickey and league founder Bill Shea met briefly with city officials and heads of Buffalo's International League Bisons. Shea said favorable action at a Bison directors meeting Friday "will remove the last obstacles to a franchise."

Rickey and Shea previously threatened to award the league's last franchise to Montreal if there wasn't a quick accord. Rickey said he favors Buffalo.

"Montreal is a great baseball city," Rickey said, "but expediency favors Buffalo because of Montreal's lack of a suitable stadium, which would take two years to build."

Reginald B. Taylor, who would finance a 3rd-league entry, will submit a money plan for approval at Friday's meeting. The directors also would have to act on a lease for 40,000-seat Civic Stadium, slated to be the 1960 home of the Bisons.

Mayor Frank Sedita said he would sign a stadium lease Friday if the directors approve it then.

Sedita last week urged a speedy meeting between Continental League and local baseball officials when it appeared Buffalo's hopes for the franchise would be shot down in a cross-fire of local interests.

But Taylor's appointment Monday as chairman of the baseball club's new finance committee apparently signalled the closing of a rift.

The club, a community venture with more than 3,000 stockholders and nearly half a million dollars in assets, would move intact from the International League to the new circuit.

Commissioner Is Still To Be Picked

. . . Leahy Leads, Gunsel Fades

Miami Beach, Fla. (AP)—National Football League owners were stalemated Wednesday night after 6 hours of trying to elect a new commissioner. They adjourned until noon today.

Surprising development at the after-dinner session was the complete fadeout of acting commissioner Austin H. Gunsel as a candidate for the $50,000-a-year commissionership.

On the last of 8 ballots during the day and night, 7 votes were cast for Atty. Marshall Leahy of San Francisco and 4 for Baltimore general manager Don Kellet, a newcomer to the knockdown, drag-out fight over a successor to the late commissioner Bert Bell. One unidentified owner abstained from voting.

Kellet was nominated after Leahy, the 49-year-old counsel of the San Francisco 49ers, polled 8 of the 9 votes needed for election.

Gunsel, an early favorite for the job he has held in an acting capacity since Bell died last Oct. 11, started the meeting with 5 and possibly 6 votes. But he faded into obscurity as voting progressed.

Others nominated and receiving scattered votes during the hectic balloting were Paul Schissler, special events director of the Los Angeles Times, and Edwin P. Anderson, president of the Detroit Lions.

The Schissler and Anderson nominations were described by one source as diversionary moves designed to keep Leahy from election.

A block of Eastern votes kept the San Francisco father of 5 teen-age daughters from carrying the commissionership west of the Mississippi for the first time in the 40-year history of the league.

Washington's George Preston Marshall, Baltimore's Carroll Rosenbloom, the Chicago Bears' George Halas and Philadelphia president Frank McNamee kept Leahy from victory. They first supported Gunsel and then, realizing the 50-year-old former FBI agent could not possibly win, they switched allegiance to Kellett.

Schissler, 65, coached football at the University of Nebraska in 1918 before moving to Oregon State as head coach and athletic director.

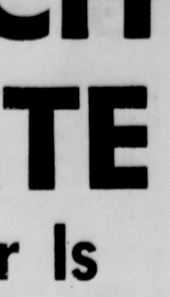
He also coached the old Brooklyn Dodgers and Chicago Cardinals professional teams.

Schissler directs the annual NFL Pro Bowl game for the Los Angeles Times. He also acts as adviser to the Los Angeles Rams.

From 1940 to 1943, he owned the Hollywood Bears of the Pacific Coast Football Conference.

Tri-Captains Selected By NU Players

Tri-captains will lead the University of Nebraska football team next fall, Coach Bill Jennings announced after a squad election.



Fricke

Don Fricke Hastings; Pat Fischer, Omaha and Ron McDole, Toledo, O., were chosen by a vote of the players.

"We certainly are happy with this selection," Coach Jennings said. They are all fine young men and possess the qualities of leadership that we need."

Fricke performed at fullback last fall after an outstanding sophomore year as a center. Jennings has not determined where Don will play next fall but said "you can bet he'll be in that starting lineup somewhere."

McDole

Fischer

Fischer, NU's top breakaway runner, will be given a shot at quarterback in spring drills. His running ability is what the Huskers need most out of their T formation.

McDole played end as a sophomore but was shifted to tackle when he grew to a mighty 232 pounds. He started every game last fall.

HAWKEYE IS HURT

Iowa City (AP) — Mike Woods, 6-4 sophomore and a top reserve, will be lost to Iowa's basketball team for nearly 3 weeks.

Bing Crosby Golf Festival Starts Today

Pebble Beach, Calif. (AP) — Bing Crosby's golfing cast of 150 professionals and 150 amateurs stands ready for today's start of his $50,000 national pro-amateur tournament, an exacting test over 72 holes.

Three courses on this Monterey Peninsula bordering the Pacific will be used during the 4 days. Art Wall Jr., of Pocono Manor, Pa., is seeking to defend his title.

He hauled down the $4,000 top prize as low pro last year and collected another $2,000 as the professional member of the winning pro-amateur team. Again he'll be paired with Charlie Coe.

The bulky field will play rounds the first 3 days over the Cypress Point, Monterey Peninsula Country Club and Pebble Beach courses, alternating in groups of 25 foursomes. Everybody will play each course.

U.S. Style Bowling Gets British Debut

London (AP)—Queen Elizabeth's scarlet-coated life guards Wednesday night trumpeted American-style bowling into Britain.

It happened at the first public bowling center opened in Britain—at Stamford Hill in North London.

The state trumpeters of the life guards sounded their fanfare, television took over and millions of Britons saw the game that's a family sport for 26 million in the United States arrive officially on this side of the Atlantic.

Sir John Hunt, leader of the successful Mt. Everest conquest in 1953, sent down the first ball.

It was a golden one. But still it strayed into the gutter.

His second shot hit 9 of the 10 pins. They didn't give Sir John a chance to try for a spare. All the pins were set up and he rolled the golden ball again. This time 7 pins went down.

The Duke of Bedford, who thinks bowling is one way of pulling more people into his stately home of Woburn Abbey, watched it all. He plans to install a bowling alley at Woburn.

The Duke didn't try his hand.

But others did—like Alec Bedser, the fast bowling star of England's cricket team.

He rolled 4 balls with little success. Then he got a strike with his 5th.

Alec's twin, Eric, also got a strike with his 5th throw. Eric is a star of Surrey's world famous cricket team, the one that won the English championship 7 times before Yorkshire grabbed it last year.

"Bowling is a game of rhythm and style—like golf and cricket," Alec said. "I'm sure it's going to collect a lot of fans in Britain—like it has in the States."

McCOOK SPURTS BY NORFOLK JC

Norfolk — McCook Junior College ran 13 points at the outset of the second half and dropped Norfolk JC 87-73 here Wednesday night.

The victory was the Indians' second straight in Nebraska 5-JC Conference play and Norfolk's second setback.

Marvin Teel and Burdette Malleck paced McCook with 28 and 20 points respectively. Ned Kelley garnered 24 for Norfolk.

McINTYRE HEAD OF DOG GROUP

Dorsey McIntyre was elected president of the Nebraska Dog and Hunt Club at the group's annual meeting and banquet. Willard Barbee of the Nebraska Game Commission was guest speaker.

Other officers chosen included Charles Caples, vice president, and John Van Bloom, secretary-treasurer. Directors on the board are Cliff Walstrom, Fred Sehnert, Jack Grainger, Walt Somerhiser, Van Bloom, Caples and McIntyre.

Trophies were awarded owners of dogs accumulating the most points in retriever field trials through the past year. Winners:

Open all-age—Spirit Lake Jet owned by Dorsey McIntyre, Lincoln.

Qualifying—Sam owned by Nancy Walters, Council Bluffs, Ia.

Derby—Bings Topper owned by Bing Grunwald, Omaha.

Pastrano Wins In Final Heavy Fight

Miami Beach, Fla. (AP) — Willie Pastrano bade farewell to the heavyweight division Wednesday night with a unanimous 10-round decision over Jerry Luedee at the Miami Beach Auditorium here. Pastrano weighed 177¾, Luedee 174.

Pastrano showed the slim crowd and a national television aduience that his speed and elusiveness would serve him better in the light-heavy division. He completely baffled Luedee with swift footwork and a fine assortment of jabs.

Pastrano's jab, that opened a cut alongside Luedee's left eye in the 4th round and bloodied and puffed his nose in the 8th, won the unanimous decision. It completely harried the young New Haven, Conn. fighter from getting a concentrated attack underway.

At times, Luedee would become so exasperated and frustrated at not being able to land any solid shots that he would bull Pastrano into the ropes and attempt to work over the Miami Beach native at close quarters.

However, this was to no avail as Pastrano would suddenly open up himself, step away and send Luedee sprawling between the ropes while Pastrano danced into the center of the ring to await his opponent.

Fowles, Gacusana Pep Link Triumph

Bill Fowles and Corey Gacusana made the difference as Lincoln High dropped Northeast 51-35 in a swimming dual Wednesday afternoon.

The pair of Link mermen splashed to 1-2 finishes in both the 100-yard butterfly and the 160-yard individual medley, accounting for 16 points and the difference in the meet.

Trio Of Problems Face NBA Heads

. . . At Annual Meeting Today

Philadelphia (AP) — At least one new franchise application, problems presented by the admission of Chicago and the shaky status of the Minneapolis club confront the National Basketball Assn. at its annual meeting today.

Officially all that's on the agenda is the Chicago matter, setting up a playoff schedule and picking a date for the league draft.

But the league owners also will hear from Len Corbosiero who plans to ask for a franchise for the Los Angeles Jets. And the league also must reckon with the possibility that owner Bob Short may want to switch the Minneapolis club to another locale.

Short said last week this is a possibility. His Lakers are drawing only half as many people per game, about 2,500, as are needed to break even. Last year the Lakers ended up on solid ground as Elgin Baylor spurred them to the playoffs.

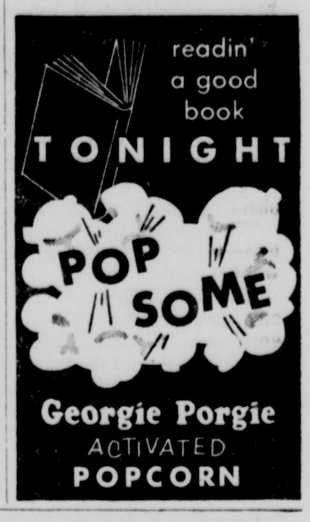
Now Short has rescheduled 3 of his home games to Los Angeles, San Francisco and Washington in hopes of getting out of the red this year.

Short definitely is planning to keep his franchise and the two Pacific Coast cities are among those he's considering should he move. Thus it's possible that with his decision yet to come, Corbosiero may have made the long trip here in vain. Short would get first pick.

Regarding Chicago, NBA president Maurice Podoloff said in New York that present plans are to staff the team with players on a pool basis. Each of the 8 other NBA clubs would put 3 players into the pool.

The rest of its personnel would come from the NBA draft or wherever else the Chicago team could find them. The new entry is headed by Max Winter, formerly of the Lakers. It was admitted to the league for the 1960-61 season last September.

The entry of Chicago will give the league a 5-team Western Division.



Bet Pender Over Sugar —Manager

Boston (AP)—Johnny Buckley, who has 45 years in the boxing business and therefore should know something about it, is talking a good fight for his current tiger, Paul Pender.

"If you're a betting man," he advised, "get a piece of Pender on the short end."

Buckley, of course, was referring to the 4-1 odds favoring old pro Sugar Ray Robinson against Pender, a fireman from Brookline, Mass., in their nationally-televised fight for one version of the world middleweight title Friday night.

"I think I know something about fighters after all this time and I don't think—I know, Pender will lick Robinson," said the 70-year-old Buckley, who managed Jack Sharkey to the heavyweight title and who took Lou Brouillard to both the welterweight and middleweight crowns.

"He might even knock him out," Buckley mused. "This Robinson can't take a punch on the whiskers anymore."

Midland Win Over Broncs Must Rank As NCC Upset

. . . VICTORY FIRST FOR WARRIORS SINCE 1948

By Paul LeBar

The victory came on Hastings' home floor, and the Warriors hadn't beaten their old rival since 1948.

Hastings still owns a 64-20 margin in the series between the schools.

Midland Coach My Dralmel's work with 6-8 Warrior post man Rick Hillman has drawn the praise of Fremont Guide and Tribune sports editor Mich Rukavina.

Draemel

"The job Draemel has done with sophomore center Rick Hillman this year is absolutely amazing," Rukavina observes.

"The (Essex) Iowa import looked he was club-footed and web-fingered last season . . ."

Hillman was credited with out-rebounding Concordia's entire team while grabbing 22 caroms during a 78-61 Midland victory.

He also scored 18 points in the contest and currently ranks 8th in Nebraska College Conference scoring.

Wayne State publicist Dick Manley cites improved play of Wildcats Larry Coney, Larry Berres, Charley Rachow and Jerry Wisnieski as the reason for Wayne's tenacity in the NCC chase . . .

Coney, lanky 6-6 performer from Pilger, is averaging above 20 points per game as opposed to a 3.5 mark last season . . . Senior Berres is already over his total of 81 points for the 1959 campaign . . .

The Wildcats are short on reserve strength, with 5-8 Dick Pineda and 6-0 Ron Marcellus carrying most of the load . . . Loss of 6-3 forward Bob Moore, who tossed in 406 points a year ago, has been the most damaging blow to Coach Allen Svenningson's 5.

Weekend blizzards precipitated some anxious moments among Chadron basketball followers . . .

Eagle ace Bud Murray failed to turn up on the northwest Nebraska campus Monday morning after leaving his hometown of Scottsbluff Sunday night. . .

Murray, who leads Chadron scoring with 174 counters in 11 contests, was stalled 35 miles outside of Scottsbluff by high drifts on the highway . . .

He and classmate Erroll Fitts left the automobile and spent the night at a neighboring ranch.

Samuels Returns As Purdue Aide

Lafayette, Ind. (AP) — Dale Samuels, the quarterback who passed Purdue to an upset over Notre Dame in 1950, has been named assistant varsity football coach and physical education instructor at his alma mater.

Samuels has been on Northwestern's coaching staff for 4 seasons after first coaching at Missouri.

At Northwestern he will be replaced as offensive backfield coach by Bob McNea, current Wildcat freshman coach.

American Gals Sparkle In Lenzerheide Events

Lenzerheide, Switzerland (AP) —Linda Meyers of Mammath Lake, Calif. copped the Lenzerheide women's giant slalon race Wednesday as America's men and women Olympic skiers made their finest showing to date in Europe.

American girls finished first and second although the two top performers on the team, Penny Pitou and Betsy Snite, experienced falls costing them chances for high places.

CUT IRKS MANTLE; RETURNS CONTRACT

Dallas (AP)—Mickey Mantle said Wednesday the New York Yankees "cut my salary too much" and he's sent their proferred contract back.

The slugging outfielder admitted his performance last season "wasn't so good."

"But they cut me more than I thought they ought to."

Mantle wouldn't say what the exact figures were, advising "you ask the Yankees about that." But reports in New York were that Mantle was cut by $15,000 from a reported $75,000.

It was the second consecutive year that Mantle has had trouble coming to terms with the Yankees. Last year, after a prolonged holdout, he eventually came to terms. He said "I came out pretty good last year."

Of the terms in the contract, Mantle said:

"It was a bad cut this time. I thought it was a little too much. I thought I deserved a cut but not that much.

"I told them what I thought" in a letter accompanying the returned contract.

Basilio Calls NBA Bunch Of Phonies

Syracuse, N.Y. (AP) — A bitter Carmen Basilio Wednesday called National Boxing Assn. leaders "self-appointed phonies" for moving to wipe out his proposed welterweight title bout with champion Don Jordan.

Basilio, believed through with fighting as a middleweight, said he thinks he deserves a crack at Jordan's crown on his past record. So does Syracuse promoter Norman Rothschild, who hopes to stage the bout here June 10.

In Los Angeles, Jordan's manager said the NBA threat may make the champ pass up the Basilio fight.

The controversy broke when NBA president Anthony Maceroni insisted Jordan must first defend his title against one of the NBA's 4 top-ranked challengers or the NBA would declare the title vacant.

Rothschild sent Maceroni a telegram asking him to "reconsider your stand and give Basilio the chance he deserves."

Basilio has decided "it will be too great a problem to continue as a middleweight," Rothschild said.

The promoter told Maceroni Basilio desired to return to his "rightful division" and "his fighting record merits more favorable consideration from your NBA."

Basilio shunned the niceties. "They're (NBA leaders in the various states) all self-appointed phonies," he shouted. "Abe Greene (of New Jersey) is the only honest man in the bunch."

Jackie McCoy, Jordan's manager, said "we'll have to think this over—we don't want to lose the NBA version of the title.

"I hope we can work something out with the NBA," he added. "We want that Basilio fight. It would be a good payday."

U.S. Entry Halved In French Classic

Monte Carlo (AP) — American entries in the Monte Carlo auto rally were cut in half Wednesday as a dwindling band of tired drivers approached France's icy Massif Central mountains.

Air Force captains George LaRose of Bethlehem, Pa. and Roy Hebel of Chicago, driving a Renault Dauphine from Paris to Monte Carlo, were reported out of the race by a checkpoint at Bourges in western France. No reason was given.

The other American team of Donald Delling, Bethel, Conn., and William Dodd, Amherst, O., passed through Luxembourg on time. Driving a Volvo, they had picked up no known penalty points as they headed for Chaumont, France.

Ex-Dodger's Death Is Termed Suicide

Greenville, Tex. (AP) — Gilbert Herman Brack, 51, and former fielder with the Brooklyn Dodgers and Philadelphia Phillies, was found shot to death in his car in a roadside park near here Wednesday.

Justice of the Peace Homer Wacasey ruled death was self-inflicted by a .22 caliber pistol.

Friends said Brack was unemployed and had been despondent over serious illness of his wife, who is in a hospital here.

FEATHER MARK NOT DISPUTED

Sidney (AP)—Cliff Frerichs of Dalton can claim the Nebraska pheasant tail-feather record.

The Dalton shooter submitted a 27 and 7/8-inch feather in a contest.

Measurement looked so good that Jack Lowe, editor of the Sidney Telegraph and former Game Commission member, sent the information to the commission.

Department Director Mel Steen replied that no records have been kept on the length of pheasant tail feathers but that 27 7/8 inches is probably a record for Nebraska and possibly for the nation.

Senate Bill To Require Local Reports On Election Finances

Washington (AP)—By a 53-37 vote, the Senate Wednesday adopted a proposal to require reports from virtually all state and local political committees on money raised and spent in federal election campaigns.

It was the second time in two days the Senate had voted to broaden a bill overhauling the 35-year-old Corrupt Practices Act. Tuesday, it wrote in a clause that would apply federal spending controls to state primaries as well as elections. The vote was roughly the same on both issues.

The bill's main terms would raise the legal ceilings on campaign spending and require more detailed reporting of political contributions and outlays.

Nebraska Sens. Roman Hruska and Carl Curtis voted in the minority Wednesday as the Senate amended its elections bill by a 53-37 roll call vote.

On Wednesday's roll call, 39 Democrats and 14 Republicans voted for the amendment extending the reporting requirement to state and local committees.

Voting against it were 18 Democrats, mostly Southerners, and 19 Republicans.

More Affected

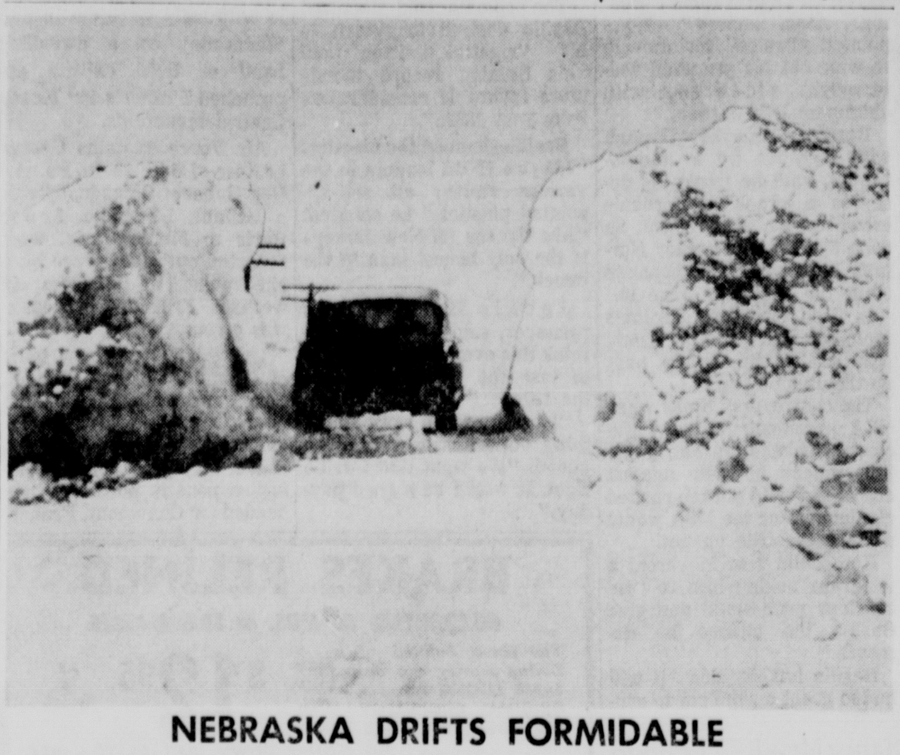
Before the new amendment was written in, the bill's reporting requirements would have applied only to political committees operating in two or more states, as is the case under present law.

Sen. Thomas C. Hennings Jr. (D-Mo) called this a loophole that he said encouraged financing through "a multiplicity of local committees."

His amendment would extend the reporting requirements to all political committees that receive or spend 2,500 or more in a year in an effort to influence federal elections.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Senate Republican leader, termed the amendment "offensive."

He contended citizens would be reluctant to serve as treasurers of local political committees if subjected to federal regulations carrying criminal penalties.



NEBRASKA DRIFTS FORMIDABLE

It was still one-way traffic in some parts of the state Wednesday, like on stretches of Highway 38, between Byron and Hardy. Snow drifts had piled so deep in some places that snow plows alone couldn't handle them. E. F. Schiermeyer of Guide Rock said he and 3 other state employes worked until midnight Tuesday on this 14' bank, doing much of the scooping by hand. (Star Staff Photo)

$23,000 Damage Claim Is Filed

Thelma R. Freeman of Lincoln filed a $23,000 damage suit Wednesday in Lancaster District Court against Yacoub Y. Al-Ulbaidi of 1300 No. 46th.

She alleges she was injured last May 31 when struck by a car driven by Al-Ulbaidi at a parking lot at 12th and K.

First Federal Savings, Loan Assets Rise

Assets of the First Federal Savings and Loan Assn. of Lincoln totaled $67,094,961.36 for 1959, showing an increase of $8,321,904.76, it was reported at the annual meeting of the association Wednesday.

An increase of $5,042,328.60 in savings was reported with savings as of Dec. 31, 1959, totaling $56,471,996.50. Savings accounts increased by 2,364 during 1959.

Dividends totaling $1,795,156.08 were paid in 1959 at the rate of 3.25% per annum payable semi-annually the first 6 months, increasing to 3.5% the second 6 months.

Mortgage money totaling $16,985,468.72 was furnished for 1,441 homes in 1959, $6,395,128.36 of which was loaned for the construction of 469 new homes.

Gladys Forsyth was elected president of the association for 1960.

Other new officers are William J. Seiboldt Jr., secretary-treasurer; Walter Johnson, A. H. Robertson, Forrest Jamison and John E. Dean, vice-presidents; Alice G. Alden, assistant vice-president-secretary; LeRoy Anderson, assistant vice-president; Joseph F. Kase, controller; LaVern F. Roschewski, internal auditor, and P. L. Jansen, assistant comptroller.

Boyles: City Prosecutor Need Is 'Now Critical'

By Virgil Falloon

Mayor Pat Boyles said Wednesday that a full-time city prosecutor will have to be secured within the next two months.

"We've needed a full-time prosecutor for 10 years," Boyles said. "The need has become more acute each year—but it's now critical."

City Prosecutor Thomas J. Gorham, who has served in the part-time, $4,300-a-year job for the past 5 years, wants to be relieved of the job which has become a "full-time responsibility."

Meanwhile, the city has been unsuccessful in securing a new assistant prosecutor since Don Biehn quit the $2,400 part-time post two months ago.

Willing Assistant

Boyles said Gorham is willing to serve in the assistant post but does not want to continue in the prosecutor job.

"The prosecutor's job has become definitely full-time," Boyles said in noting that court load approached 15,000 cases during 1959. "It isn't part-time work any more," he said.

Boyles said the present legal department budget does not have any money to increase salaries, but predicted the city would have to raise its salary sights to secure a replacement.

He noted the county attorney's office had difficulty recently in securing a deputy replacement and county salaries are higher with private practice allowed.

Interim Basis

It was indicated the city might be able to create a full-time prosecutor post on an interim basis until the next budget in September by lumping two jobs together temporarily.

Loss of Gorham would mean a virtual turnover in the city legal department during the past year. Former Deputy Atty. Norma Ver-Maas resigned last September.

City Atty. Ralph Nelson has asked the City Council for salary adjustments in the deputy and the two part-time posts, but his recommendations were not followed.

One city official noted that one Council member, who had been critical at that time of any salary increases in the legal department, has now given the green light to offer the salary it will take to fill the prosecutor post.

Both Mayor Boyles and Nelson had recommended the Council consider putting the prosecutor's job on a full-time basis last September.

Candy & Lobster Eater, Puffer Pesters Law

If you see a man with a candy bar in his pocket who is eating a lobster tail and smoking a cigaret please notify the Lancaster County Sheriff's office.

Deputies said 19 pounds of frozen lobster tails, 10 cartons of cigarets, 8 cigaret lighters, some candy bars and pennies were reported stolen in an early-morning burglary Wednesday at Clem's Drive-In at 640 West Van Dorn. The loss was estimated at $54.

Ex-Engineer Schlitt Lincoln Sand Co. VP

The Abel Affiliated Companies Wednesday announced the appointment of former Deputy State Engineer Henry G. Schlitt as vice president and general manager of the Lincoln Sand and Gravel Co.

Schlitt will succeed Warren T. "Bun" Roberts who is to retire June 1 after association with the Abel organization for nearly 40 years.

Schlitt, who had been with the State Highway Department 33 years, left his position Dec. 31.

Gov. Ralph Brooks ordered former State Engineer R. L. Cochran to dismiss Schlitt, and this action prompted Cochran to resign also on Dec. 31.

Taxpayer Plan Praises GNI Route 3 Foes

Alliance (AP) — Gene Kemper, temporary chairman of Greater Nebraska Interstate Inc., (GNI), said Wednesday he has received a telegram of congratulations from Fred Sorensen of Omaha, chairman of the Omaha Taxpayers' Plan.

The telegram included a request Sorensen and his group be invited to attend a directors meeting of GNI scheduled at Grand Island Sunday.

GNI is an out-state group formed to protest the priority under which a downtown Omaha segment of the Interstate Highway known as Interstate 3, would be built ahead of segments west of Lincoln.

Kemper quoted Sorensen's telegram as saying: "Congratulations on your move to waylay the proposed routes of Interstates 1 and 3 through Omaha. The people of Omaha do not want these routes to come through the city because it would become an injustice to our fellow citizens of Nebraska."

Guatemala Police Oust 220 Hunger Strikers

Guatemala (AP) — Police threw out 220 employes of the Social Security Institute who had taken over the main buildings of the government agency in a hunger strike that had lasted 112 hours.

Police threw tear gas bombs at employes attempting to get back in. The workers went on strike, but stayed at their posts protesting against the dismissal of 50 of their number by the institute's director. They demanded dismissal of the director.

Snow-Packed Roads Cut 4-H Meet Attendance

Chill temperatures and snow-packed roads threatened to cut attendance by half as one of 3 annual state 4-H Leaders Training Conferences got under way in Lincoln Wednesday.

While pre-registration figures indicated approximately 300 persons would attend the 3-day session, about 120 persons had checked in by Wednesday evening. Leaders from Lancaster and nearby counties were expected to swell the final total.

Snow-choked country roads apparently prevented many delegates from making the junket to Lincoln, rather than general highway conditions, as arrivals from as far away as Brown, Holt and Boyd Counties reported no travel difficulty.

Lutes Speaks

At the first conference session Wednesday evening, W. D. Lutes, associate state Extension leader of studies and training, told leaders one of their most important functions is to provide club members with an opportunity to learn.

Regardless of the teaching method used, there are 4 factors contributing to the success of the learning process, Lutes said.

They are:

—Capture club members' interest in order to create an effective learning situation.

—Members' interest becomes aroused in an activity in direct proportion to their personal involvement.

—Experiences, or lack of them, which a club member brings to the learning situation, greatly affects his understanding.

—Attitudes influence the meaning a member attaches to a situation.

Attitudes in youth of 4-H age are emotional in nature and should be respected by the leader, Lutes added.

Among guests at a buffet preceding the evening session was Miss Sharon Fogarty of Omaha, the queen of Ak-Sar-Ben.

Men and women leaders will split up Thursday to attend various subject matter sessions of their choice, taught by University of Nebraska College of Agriculture Extension specialists. Subjects include foods, clothing, home living, animal husbandry, dairy, entomology, and others.

Some sessions may be cancelled due to lack of participants, 4-H officials said.

A banquet honoring leaders will be held Friday night at the Nebraska Union. The conference will conclude Saturday afternoon with a talk by Dr. Glenn Dildine, National 4-H Foundation, Washington, D.C., on "Working in Groups."

School Program Set At $995,000

Nebraska City (UPI) — Nebraska City's school building program will cost an estimated $995,000, a citizen's committee has been informed.

The proposed program will be put before the voters Feb. 16 or 23. It provides for a new high school costing $800,000, a new grade school costing $160,000, and $35,000 for remodeling work.

Campbell Kropp, school board member, said sale of some district-owned property could help cut the cost. Preliminary sketches of the buildings got unanimous approval from the committee.

The estimated increase in taxes, based on present valuations, is $7.25 per $1,000 taxable valuation.

Heads Bar Group

Fremont — William H. Lamme of Fremont is the new president of the Dodge County Bar Assn. Edward J. Robins was named vice president, and John Cutright, secretary.

Jaycees Honor 3 Holdrege Men

Holdrege (AP) — Outstanding young men awards have been presented to 3 Holdrege men by the local Jaycees.

Jack Boyd was named the outstanding young man of the year. Phil McClymont, a Holdrege native and University of Nebraska graduate, was named outstanding farmer. Bill Whitlock was named the outstanding boss of the year. He is a native of Michigan, and has lived in Holdrege for the past two years.

Dr. A. L. Miller's Condition 'Fair'

Houston, Tex. (AP) — Dr. Arthur L. Miller, former Nebraska Congressman, was reported in fair condition Wednesday at Methodist Hospital after undergoing cardivascular surgery for a second time.

Taylor Calves Win Championship In Denver Stock Show Competition

From Press Dispatches

Denver — In the carload of bulls competition in the yards, the championship banner on Herefords was awarded to a load of junior calves shown by Alfred Meeks and Son of Taylor, Neb., at the 54th annual Western Stock Show under way in Denver.

The grand champion steer of the show was a Hereford named "Red Meat," shown by Paul and Gene Hawkins of Oakland, Ill.

A carload of Angus, entered by the Elkhorn Valley Cattle Co. of Norfolk, Neb., won the reserve championship in the fat cattle competition.

The championship was won by the entry of Karl and Jack Hoffman of Ida Grove, Ia.

Dawson Team 1st

The Dawson County, Nebraska, 4-H livestock judging team topped all states in 4-H cattle judging at the Denver show. The Nebraska team placed 4th in sheep, and 5th in all classes in the field of 9 states from the Rocky Mountain region.

Gordon Chubbuck of Lexington, Neb., placed 3rd in cattle, 4th in all classes, and tied for 6th in sheep. Dick Rowe of Cozad, Neb., placed 5th in cattle and tied for 6th in sheep.

George Libal of Lexington placed 7th in cattle. The 4th team member was Phil Menke of Cozad. Harold Stevens, Dawson County Extension agent, coached the team and accompanied them to Denver.

NU Group 10th

The University of Nebraska animal husbandry team placed 10th out of a field of 19 in the show. Texas Tech's team took 1st place.

Members of the Nebraska team are: Paul Bengton, Wakefield; Leslie Cook, Arlington; Angus Garey, Beaver City; John Joyner, Lincoln; and Charles Williams, Johnstown. Alternates are Gary Heineman, Pender, and Larry Williams, Johnstown.

Shorthorn steers, junior yearlings—Elton Neujahr, Ulysses, placed 4th and 5th. Teraline Selker, Culbertson, placed 8th.

Angus steer calves—Vickey Spencer, Culbertson, placed 3rd.

Angus junior yearling steers—David Kalb, Chappell, placed 14th.

Hereford junior yearling steers—Kalb, placed 7th; Helen Abts, Big Springs, placed 8th; and Jerreld Hibbs, Smithfield, placed 15th.

Hereford senior calves—Donald Michael, Merriman, placed 3rd; Edwin Paul, Bassett, placed 6th.

Not all of the Nebraskans who planned to have entries in the show were able to get to Denver because of the snow storm.

Nebraskans Entering National Wool Show

Bonnie Wahl of Bradshaw, left, and Jean Thurber of Lincoln, winners in the junior and senior divisions in the Nebraska "Make It Yourself With Wool" contest leave today for the national fashion show and 5 days of vacation at San Antonio, Tex. The show is held in conjunction with the National Wool Growers convention. Miss Wahl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wahl of Bradshaw, is a senior in Bradshaw High School. A 19-year-old Nebraska Wesleyan student, Miss Thurber is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Thurber of Burwell. (Photo Special to The Star)

Dr. R. G. Phelps Dies At Holdrege

Holdrege — Funeral services were held here for Dr. R. G. Phelps, 75, dentist here since 1908.

Active in Masonic groups, Dr. Phelps was slated to receive a 50-year pin from the Holdrege Masonic Lodge this week. He was also a member of the Knights Templar and Shrine.

Dr. Phelps was a graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan University and Lincoln Dental College. He was a past member of the Holdrege City Council.

Surviving him are his wife, Ethel; twin daughters, Mrs. W. L. Cressman of Bellevue and Mrs. B. F. Leonard of Kearney; a son, Boyd of McAllen, Tex.; brothers, Guy G. of Exeter and John of El Monte, Calif.; sister, Mrs. Mae Allen of Ogallala; 6 grandchildren and one great grandson.

Friend Airman Fatally Injured

Lincoln Star Special

Friend — Word has been received here of the death of A.2C James Keane of Friend, who died at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Tex., from injuries received in an auto crash near Miles City, Mont., Christmas Eve.

Funeral arrangements are pending. Surviving are his wife, the former Sharon McBride of Friend; two sons, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Keane Sr. of Friend.

Judge Steenberg Seeks Re-Election

Gering (AP) — Judge R. M. Van Steenberg of the 17th judicial district paid his filing fee at the courthouse in Gering Wednesday, seeking reelection to his post. The papers are being forwarded to the secretary of state.

Child Slips Out Of Mom's Arms, Killed In Fall

South Sioux City (AP) — A one-year-old boy slipped from his mother's arms when she stumbled and fell, and he was fatally injured.

Authorities said Doug Dallas Van Cleave, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Van Cleave of North Sioux City, S.D., fell to the frozen ground after his mother stumbled while leaving a trailer at a North Sioux City trailer court.

The family recently moved to North Sioux City from South Sioux City, Neb.

Charges Against Pair Dismissed

Gering (AP) — Charges of accessory to second degree murder on file against two Kimball men were dismissed Wednesday at the request of Scotts Bluff County Attorney W. H. Kirwin.

The charge against Manford John Fontenot, 22, was dismissed in County Court, since he had not been bound over to the District Court, and the charge against Ralph Birdwell, 22, Kimball, was dismissed in District Court.

The county attorney dropped the charges against the two men after a District Court jury acquitted Vern Pickett, 24, of Kimball, of second degree murder in the Dec. 14 fatal shooting of Anceto Franco, 26, of Minatare.

Mrs. Trotter Bound Over

Hastings (AP)—Mrs. Myrtle Trotter, 41, of Hastings was bound over to District Court Wednesday on a charge of first degree murder.

No bond was set following the preliminary hearing before County Judge J. E. Ray.

A witness for the state, Ronald Daugherty, testified he was present at the Trotter residence last Friday night when Joe Flowers,, 41-year-old construction worker, was fatally shot.

Daugherty said he and others present tried to get Flowers to leave but he was angry and refused, and a shot was fired by Mrs. Trotter.

Also testifying was Dr. George Hoffmeister who attended Flowers before his death on Saturday.

Young Farmer Cited

Chappell — Jess Grasz has been named winner of the Outstanding Young Farmer award sponsored by the Chappell Junior Chamber of Commerce. The 27-year-old Deuel County farmer has operated an 875-acre rented farm southeast of Chappell for the past 3 years.

St. Paul Man Dies As Tractor Upsets

. . . Indirectly Blamed On Weather

Lincoln Star Special

St. Paul—Funeral services for 63-year-old Joe Slavicek of St. Paul, latest victim to be added to the list of Nebraska snowstorm deaths, will be held at 1:30 p.m. Friday at Keating's Mortuary in St. Paul.

He was killed when a tractor he was using to clear snowdrifts on the Mike Valasek farm 10 miles east of Palmer, overturned and pinned him underneath the vehicle.

Mr. Slavicek apparently was killed instantly, but it took rescue workers 3 hours to free his body from the overturned tractor. The ambulance from Palmer was unable to reach the farm and a truck had to be used to transport the body part way to town.

His survivors include two sisters, Mrs. Anna Hurt and Mrs. John Jares, both of St. Paul.

Deaths blamed directly and indirectly to the Nebraska weather since last Thursday now stand at 14.

Florida Father, Son Found Dead

Council Bluffs (AP)—Two Florida truckers were found dead of suffocation in their trailer Wednesday, after being overcome by fumes from a charcoal heater used to keep their cargo of potatoes from freezing.

Pottawattamie County Coroner Maurice O'Neill identified the pair as Paul M. Nichols Jr., 43, Tampa, Fla., and his son, Kent William Nichols, 18, of Hialeah, Fla.

Their bodies were discovered by John Dominguez and Jess Goss, who had gone to check up on the trailer after the two men failed to return on schedule to pick up their tractor unit, which was repaired at Dominquez' garage.

Snow Removal Job May Cost $10,000

Columbus (UPI) — City officials estimated the snow removal job here would cost $10,000. It was the biggest snow volume in the city's history, they said.

Couple Observe 65th Anniversary

Atkinson — Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Davis recently marked their 65th wedding anniversary at their home here. Both are 89 years old.

Residents of this community for 55 years, they retired from farming north of here 15 years ago.

Larson Resigning Post At Holdrege

Holdrege (AP) — The Rev. Ivan Larson has resigned as superintendent of Christian Homes Inc., a home for the aged here.

Nebraska News

The Rev. Mr. Larson came from Greeley, Neb., in 1946 to serve as superintendent of the institution which was then a children's home.

He resigned in 1948 and returned to the home in 1952. At that time he had charge of the construction program of converting the institution from a children's home to a home for the aged.

Beefline Highway Meet Postponed

Burwell (AP) — The Nebraska Beefline Assn., formed to boost Highway 2 from Alliance to Dunning and 91 from Dunning to Blair, will hold its organizational meeting at Spalding Feb. 16. The meeting was originally scheduled for this week.

Swim Pool Issue Loses For 4th Time

Lincoln Star Special

Blue Hill — For the 4th time, Blue Hill voters have rejected a $39,000 bond issue for a proposed swimming pool and bath house.

The latest vote was 154 against and 138 for.

Although turnout at the polls was termed "about average," the vote total was declared exceptionally good in view of the cold, snowy weather.

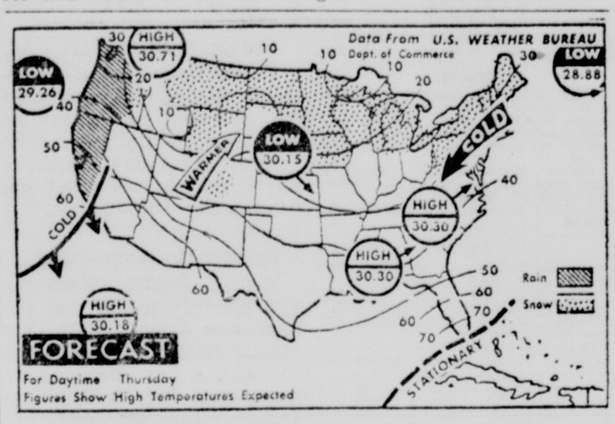
A spokesman said at this time there are no further plans for future elections on the issue.

Rites Held For Rev. Rupley, 68

Dalton — Funeral services were held here for the Rev. John B. Rupley, 68, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church in Dalton the past 8 years. Death was attributed to a heart attack. Burial was at Charles Town, W. Va.

The Rev. Mr. Rupley had served pastorates at Boonsboro, Md., Washington, D. C., Westminster, Md., Baltimore, and Grand Island, where he spent 11 years before moving to Dalton.

Surviving are his wife, Etheleen; sons, the Rev. John B. Rupley Jr. of El Paso, Tex., and the Rev. Kendig Weller Rupley of Omaha; 5 grandchildren and 4 sisters.



Pacific Coast Can Expect More Rain

Rain is forecast Thursday to continue on the central and northern Pacific Coast. Snow flurries will be widely scattered from northern Rockies through the northern Plains, Mississippi Valley and Great Lakes region to central and northern Appalachians. Temperatures will continue cold in the eastern half of the country except for some warming in Georgia and Florida. A warming trend is expected from the Pacific Coast eastward through the plateau region to the central states. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Stocks Slump; Lowest Trade In A Month

New York (AP)—A moderate stock market recovery lacked enthusiastic backing and the market declined Wednesday on the smallest volume since Christmas Eve.

The 1,198 issues traded made it the narrowest market since Nov. 1 when only 1,197 issues crossed the ticked tape.

Indecision, gloom and nervousness were some of the words used by brokers to describe the mood of Wall Street.

Volume was 2,720,000 shares compared with 3,100,000 Tuesday and was the lightest since the 2,320,000 shares traded Dec. 24. A total of 531 issues declined while 422 advanced. Only 4 new highs for 1959-'60 were posted compared with 39 new lows.

The Dow Jones industrial average fell 1.38 to 643.69.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was down 70 cents to $221.90 with the industrials down 80 cents, the rails down 30 cents and the utilities down 40 cents.

Motors were active leaders in an early advance. Steels and other industrials also participated. By the close however, the leading motors and steels were lower.

Eleven of the 16 most active stocks declined, 4 rose and one was unchanged.

American Stock Exchange prices were irregularly lower with volume at 1,070,000 shares compared with 1,050,000 Tuesday.

Corporate bonds were narrowly higher. U.S. government bonds were mixed.

Volume declined to $5,760,000 par value from $5,950,000 Tuesday.

CATTLE SLOW; LAMBS HIGHER

Omaha (AP) — Increased receipts slowed fat cattle trade at Omaha Wednesday. There was little action on the bulk of the run.

Hogs were 25c to mostly 50c lower. Fat lambs were firm and in instances 25c higher.

OMAHA

Hogs: 14,000; barrows and gilts 25-75 mostly 50 lower; sows weak to 50 lower; U.S. No. 1-3 190-250 lbs. 13.00-13.50; fairly uniform weight No. 1-3 and some sorted No. 2 and 3 200-235 lbs. 13.75; No. 1 and No. 1 and 2 200-235 lbs. 13.85-14.00; sows 200-550 lbs. 10.25-11.50.

Cattle: 12,500; calves 25; fed steers 1,150 lbs down steady to 25 lower; steers over 1,200 lbs generally 25-50 lower; fed heifers steady to 25 lower; spots 50 lower on good to low choice; cows steady to weak; spots 25 lower; bulls strong to 50 higher; vealers about steady; high choice fed steers 1,150 lbs down 27.00; choice 1,050-1,200 lbs 25.50-26.75; choice 1,250-1,350 lbs 24.50-26.00; high choice 1,382 lbs 26.50; good and low choice 22.50-25.25; high choice and prime 975-1,000 lbs heifers 27.25 and 27.75; 950-1,000 lbs 27.25-27.50; choice 25.50-26.50; several 26.75-27.00; good and low choice 22.00-25.00; utility cows 15.25-16.25; few commercial 16.50-17.00; canners and cutters 13.00-15.00; individual high yielding cutters to low utility 15.25.

No. 1 to fall shorn pelts 18.75.

CHICAGO

The first setback of the week knocked as much as 50 cents a hundredweight off butcher hog prices Wednesday as shipper demand slackened sharply.

Prices were off only 10 cents at the top level, however, with a few lots of sorted No. 1 grade in the 190-210 lb range bringing $14.00.

No. 1 and mixed 1-2 grades in the 190-215 lb range sold at $13.50-13.75 and other mixed grades up to 230 lbs at $12.50-13.50. Heavier kinds cleared at $11.75-13.50 and sows up to $11.75.

The market for slaughter steers was steady to 75 cents lower.

High choice to prime grade steers brought $25.75-29.00 for 1,000-1,350 lb weights. Strictly choice kinds were $25.50-28.00 and the good grade $23.50-25.25.

Heifers were steady to 5 cents lower, vealers steady and bulls steady to strong. Heifers topped at $27.75 for choice and prime and at $25.50 for good grade. Vealers were $30.00 and down, utility and commercial bulls $19.75-22.00.

Good and choice wooled slaughter lambs sold up to $20.75 in a steady sheep market and ewes up to $7.50.

Rep. Hechler Demands Peek Into Peephole Budget

Washington (UPI) — Rep. Ken Hechler (D-WVa), a hard man to shake off, demanded Wednesday that the Post Office Department give him a peek at its budget for peepholes.

He fired off a letter to Postmaster General Arthur F. Summerfield calling for figures on how much Summerfield spends to "spy" on postal employes at work, at lunch and even in the men's room.

The Congressman said he understood there were no peepholes in women's restrooms, a fact that could add up to a loophole in the peephole policy.

The "spying" devices include secret corridors with small holes in the walls and one-way glass so postal inspectors can check on workers without being detected.

Hechler, a Democrat who had to be eased out of a White House post when the Republicans took over in 1953, opened his anti-peephole drive with a House speech. He compared the Post Office Department's policy to that of the Nazi Gestapo.

Postal officials denied it. They said the peepholes were to protect the public and honest employes against pilferers and had been used for years.

Hechler said this was no excuse. "You don't use wiretapping or other un-American means just because they happen to catch criminals," he said.

Hechler said the inspectors watch men's restrooms on the theory that a wrong-doer might try to flush evidence down a toilet. But he said thieves still could arrange to have evidence disposed of in the peephole-free women's washrooms.

Hechler served as a White House assistant to former President Truman. When the Eisenhower administration took over in 1953, he ignored GOP hints that he resign like other Democrats.

According to the Congressional Directory, he stayed on until he "was fired in April, 1953, for the following stated cause: 'Completion of work to which you were assigned.' "

The 45-year-old Congressman also says in his official biography that he is "not yet married."

GRATEFUL YOUTH SAYS THANKS TO FLIERS OF MERCY PLANE

A 17-year-old Roseland, Neb. youth who owes his life to a "mercy flight" made Christmas night by State Aeronautics Director Jack Obbink and Lincoln pilot Ernest McGill has expressed his gratitude.

John Bourg, who suffered severe chest injuries Dec. 24 when the truck he was driving overturned on him, was hospitalized at Mary Lanning Hospital at Hastings and desperately needed a special respirator available only at Chicago.

United Air Lines was able to get the respirator as far as Omaha, then adverse weather conditions held up further flight.

Obbink and McGill flew to Omaha, however, picked up the respirator, then flew it to Hsstings where each passing minute saw young Bourg fighting to live

Dorothy Selby, registered nurse who attends John nights, wrote Obbink: "Surely hope you've had a word of gratitude 'ere now. John wanted me to be sure you got his."

Referring to the night of the "mercy flight," Miss Selby said, "If you could have seen the look on John's face when the doctors and nurses came into the room. He had seen me but 30 minutes, yet he looked at me so pleadingly. I kept saying, 'It's all right, John, you'll soon feel better,' and he did.

"For John and his family and all of us here, I say thank you very much," Miss Selby wrote.

Commenting that John now can go without the respirator through the day, Miss Selby said, "He is a sweet boy and has been a wonderful patient."

Obbink said he was written John a letter urging him to "hurry up and get well and start flying yourself."
